Through activism, engaged New Yorkers have demanded and won these rights

1970
- a rent freeze for low-income seniors

1975
- a habitable home
- for tenants to organize

1979
- shelter for homeless individuals

1986
- not to be discriminated against based on sexual orientation
- shelter for homeless families

2002
- not to be discriminated against based on gender identity

2005
- a rent freeze for low-income disabled people

2008
- not to be discriminated against based on source of income
- harassment cases in housing court
- not to be discriminated against based on lawful occupation

2017
- right to counsel in eviction cases