Every child deserves the best

Invest – don't cut

London NUT march and rally

Thursday 17th November

Assemble 5:00pm Whitehall (opposite Downing Street)
March past Parliament and Department for Education
Rally at 6:30pm in Emmanuel Centre, Marsham Street

Speakers include Jeremy Corbyn and Kevin Courtney

Education spending cuts mean

- class sizes up
- less individual attention for children
- fewer subject choices
- Early Years and SEN spending cut
- teachers and support staff being cut or not replaced

Teachers, parents, support staff and governors please join us ahead of the budget to demand more money so that every child gets the best education
