LP NEWS INFORMATION NOTICE

The LP NEWS is an extremely important part of the libertarian political movement. It will be effective only if you make it a point to consider yourself a part of the staff. We can't print what we don't know. A young movement such as ours depends on communication as a means of education and to reinforce our conviction to go forward against formidable obstacles.

1. Photographs -- We need action photos more than posed shots. Whenever there is an event taking place in your area have someone there with a camera. Then send photos to us ASAP with photo credit and identification of personalities included.

2. Articles -- You write them if you can. News stories on activities should place emphasis on anecdotes rather than philosophy. Philosophical statements are sometimes applicable to unusual issues specific to your locality (e.g.: Alaskan secession or federal land ownership in Utah). NOTE: Type all articles double-spaced on a 62-character line.

3. Media Coverage -- Send us any clippings of newspaper articles and full reports on radio and TV coverage. We also would like to feature an outstanding editorial reply or letter to the editor in each issue.

4. Deadlines -- Don't wait to gather everything you can before sending it to us. Send us each article or news note as soon as it is available. The next issue will use mostly information we get before October 7.

5. LP NEWS Correspondent -- Each state should have someone with the specific assignment of writing articles and gathering information for the LP NEWS. We will correspond directly with that person if you will notify us who he/she is. We will assume you (the chairperson) are our contact if we don't hear otherwise.

6. Address -- Send all LP NEWS correspondence to

Libertarian Party

Thanks for your help. I would appreciate any suggestions you might have and I look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Bill
