

Constitution of the Christian Medical Fellowship of New Zealand

Amended 14 May 2011. Previously Amended 1 October 2009

1. Introduction

The Christian Medical Fellowship of New Zealand (hereinafter referred to as CMF) shall be an association of Christian members of the medical profession in New Zealand.

2. Aims

The aims of CMF shall be:

- a. To unite Christian doctors in their common loyalty to our Lord Jesus Christ by both deepening their Christian faith and by seeking the highest attainable standards of Christian and professional conduct
- b. To promote in the medical profession personal faith in Jesus Christ and the acceptance of his ethical teaching
- c. To provide a forum for the expression of the relevance of the Christian faith to the particular problems of our national and local life as they relate to medicine
- d. To strengthen the work of the University Christian groups, particularly in the Faculties of Medicine
- e. To support the work of medical missionaries throughout the world

3. Basis of Belief

The basis of belief of the fellowship shall be:

'The revelation of the one true God (Father, Son and Holy Spirit) as it is given to us in the Bible, which is the divinely appointed authority for faith and life; the Gospel of our redemption through the incarnation, death and bodily resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ; our regeneration and renewal in holiness through the Holy Spirit's indwelling; and the expectation of the return of Christ to receive His people and to be the world's righteous judge.'

The Board of CMF shall subscribe to this Basis of Belief and members shall continue in office only as long as their views are in accord with it.

4. Membership

Members shall agree with the Aims, and with the following Declaration of Membership:

'In joining the Christian Medical Fellowship, I declare my faith in God the Father, and in God the Son the Lord Jesus Christ who is my Saviour. I desire to be ruled by God the Holy Spirit in accordance with the Bible, the divinely appointed authority in matters of life and faith.'

Membership shall be classified as follows:

a. Full Membership

Full Membership is open to all New Zealand medical doctors.

They shall be in agreement with the aims of the CMF and shall sign the Declaration of Membership.

Such members shall be entitled to vote at Annual and Special General Meetings, providing that they have paid their membership fee. Annual membership fee rates and means of payment shall be determined by the Board and communicated to members.

b. Student Membership

Student membership shall be open to New Zealand medical students.

They shall be in agreement with the aims of the CMF and shall sign the Declaration of Membership.

Student members shall not be entitled to vote at Annual or Special General Meetings. Annual membership fee rates and means of payment shall be determined by the Board and communicated to members.

c. Associate Membership

Associate membership shall be open to any other interested individuals, including other health care workers, church workers, and spouses of members.

They shall be in agreement with the aims of the CMF and shall sign the Declaration of Membership.

Associate members shall not be entitled to vote at Annual or Special General Meetings. Annual membership fee rates and means of payment shall be determined by the Board and communicated to members.

5. Honorary Membership

Any of the classes of membership under rule 4 requiring a membership fee may be offered as an honorary membership. Honorary membership may be offered to medical missionaries, retired medical practitioners and others at the discretion of the Board.

6. Register of Members

A register of members shall be kept with a record of addresses and payment of membership fees. Members more than two years in arrears with membership fees may be suspended at the discretion of the Board.

7. Finance

- a. The financial year shall commence on 1 April each year. The Treasurer shall prepare Annual Financial Statements which shall be presented to the Annual General Meeting of the Fellowship. Annual Financial Statements shall be audited by an auditor appointed by the Board, unless upon recommendation of the Board, the Annual General Meeting resolves to not appoint an auditor for the ensuing year.
- b. The Board is empowered to open and operate banking accounts and to determine appropriate access to these accounts .
- c. Membership fees are due annually. Membership fee rates and means of payment shall be determined by the Board and communicated to members.

8. Administration

a. The Governing Body

- i. The governing body shall consist of a Board, consisting of the following voting members:
 1. Up to six voting Board Members, elected from the membership at an AGM, whose election to the Board will be for a period of two years, these positions being renewable by re-election at the AGM closest to two years after their election.

2. The National Director, appointed by the Board, is a board member ex officio.
 3. Up to six voting members co-opted by the Board, selected with regard to their experience relevant to the governance of CMF and who are members of CMF. They will serve for a period of up to 12 months, renewable by Board reappointment at the first Board meeting after the AGM.
 4. Two Student Representatives elected from the student membership.
- ii. The office bearers of CMF shall be elected by the Board from among its voting members at the first Board meeting following the Annual General Meeting, and they shall hold office until the conclusion of the first Board meeting following the Annual General Meeting; each office-bearer shall be eligible for re-election by the Board. - viii. To assist the Board at meetings and in preparing for meetings in matters of order
- ix. To ensure Minutes of proceedings at a meeting shall be signed by the Board Chair, or by another Board Member as the Chair's delegate, after they have been confirmed as accurate by those present at the meeting, at the next succeeding meeting

d. National Treasurer

It is the duty of the National Treasurer to ensure that:

- i. Correct books and accounts are kept showing the financial affairs of CMF, including full details of all receipts and expenditure connected with the activities of CMF
- ii. The Board receives adequate, regular, and comprehensive financial reports at all its meetings
- iii. All appropriate legal requirements and compliance matters concerning handling of funds are being observed by CMF

e. Annual General Meetings

- i. An Annual General Meeting of CMF members shall be convened at least once in each calendar year and within the period of 6 months after the expiration of each financial year of CMF.
- ii. The Annual General Meetings of CMF shall, subject to the preceding rule, be convened on such date and at such time as the Board thinks fit

- iii. In addition to any other business which may be transacted at an Annual General Meeting, the business of an Annual General Meeting shall be:
 1. To confirm the minutes of the last preceding Annual General Meeting and of any Special General Meeting held since that meeting
 2. To receive reports from the Board, concerning the activities of CMF, during the preceding financial year
 3. To elect members to the Board
 4. To appoint an independent Auditor who will be responsible for the auditing of the accounts of CMF for each and every financial year for which such auditor is appointed. If the Board recommends that no auditor be appointed for the ensuing year, the Annual General Meeting may decide whether or not to appoint an auditor.
 5. To vote on any motions or Special Resolutions that have been received in accord with the rules

f. Special General Meetings

- i. The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a Special General Meeting of CMF; or
- ii. On the requisition of not less than 15 members of CMF a Special General Meeting may be called subject to rule 8.g.iii
- iii. A requisition of members for a Special General Meeting shall:
 1. State the purpose or purposes of the meeting in writing and;
 2. Be signed by the members making the requisition and;
 3. Be lodged with the National Secretary.
- iv. If the Board fails to convene a Special General Meeting within 3 months of the date on which a requisition of members for the meeting is lodged with the Secretary, any one or more of the members who made the requisition may convene a Special General Meeting to be held not later than a further 3 months after that date.
- v. A Special General Meeting of CMF convened by a member or members as referred to in clause (ii & iii) of this rule, shall be convened as nearly as is practicable in the same manner as General meetings are convened.

g. Notice

- i. In the case of any General meeting, any call for nominations, notice of General business to be discussed, and any notices of motion shall be forwarded to every member not less than 28 days prior to the meeting so that
 1. Consultation with members may take place;
 2. Proxies can be arranged for voting at the National General meeting should any be desired.
- ii. The Secretary shall, at least 28 days before the date fixed for the holding of a General meeting, cause to be sent a notification of the meeting.
- iii. In the case of a Special Resolution which is to be presented to the members at the General Meeting, notice of intention to propose a Special Resolution will also be sent out by the Secretary at least 28 days before the date of the AGM.
- iv. No business other than that specified in the notice convening a General meeting shall be transacted at the meeting.
- v. A member desiring to bring any business before a General meeting may do so, providing the member gives notice in writing of that business to the Secretary provided that such a request is received in time for notice to be given as specified in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) above.

- vi. At the discretion of the Chair presiding, at the conclusion of the specified business of the General meeting other matters may be discussed but a vote on such other matters will not be taken.

9. Change of the Constitution

This constitution may be altered, rescinded or added to only by a special resolution of CMF.

10. Affiliation

This constitution empowers the Board to seek affiliation with appropriate bodies of similar outlook and basis in this and other countries.

11. Employees, consultants and contractors

- a. The Board shall endeavour to appoint a National Director on such terms and conditions as the Board thinks fit.
- b. The Board may authorise employment of other staff members, contractors consultants or volunteers on such terms and conditions as the Board thinks fit.

12. Charitable Purpose

CMF is established and maintained exclusively for charitable purposes and is not carried on for the private profit of any individual.

13. Dissolution

- a. CMF may be dissolved by a resolution passed by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting at a Special General Meeting of members convened for the purpose, of which twenty-one days notice shall have been given to the membership.
- b. Such resolution may give instructions for the disposal of any assets held on behalf of CMF, provided that if any property remains after the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities such property shall not be distributed among the members of CMF, but shall be given or transferred to such other organisation that is charitable under New Zealand law having objects and doctrinal basis similar to some or all of those of the Fellowship as the Board shall determine and if, or in so far as, effect cannot be given to this provision then to some other charitable purpose recognised under New Zealand law.
