Connie Leyva knows good jobs create safer neighborhoods

Tuesday, June 3rd is Election Day. Polls are open from 7am to 8pm. Make your plan to vote.

Good Jobs Build Strong Communities

Connie Leyva knows the importance of having a good job.

She represents more than 2.1 million workers as President of the California Labor Federation and has dedicated her career to fighting for jobs that respect workers with honest wages and benefits.

Connie will work closely with local businesses and responsible companies to create new job opportunities in our communities. Growing our local economy to support better schools and safer neighborhoods starts with a good job.
