Building Opportunities For Success Takes Investment and Hard Work

A group of people, including Connie Leyva, are talking outdoors. Connie is in the center, wearing a light blue blazer and a white shirt, smiling and gesturing with her hands. She is surrounded by several other people, including a man in a black t-shirt with a large 'F' logo, a woman in a black top, and a man in a white t-shirt with glasses. The background shows a building and trees.

Connie Leyva — Committed To Helping The Middle Class Get Ahead

Connie Leyva was finishing her degree at the University of Redlands when she was starting a family and a corporate takeover forced her out of her job.

Connie stuck through it and built a career on helping others get ahead as a community leader and president of her local union.

As our State Senator, Connie will continue to fight for opportunities for middle-class families to succeed with good jobs and rewarding careers.
