12.10 Technical Objections to Grievances

Failure to comply with the formal and technical requirements of this section constitutes an irregularity only and an arbitrator may allow all necessary amendments and waive procedural irregularities, on such terms as are just, to secure the just determination of the real matters in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case. Parties may amend the grievance procedure by mutual agreement in writing.
(Revised January 10, 2006)

ARTICLE 13 - ARBITRATION

15.03 Probation for Newly Hired Employees

- a) Newly hired Employees shall be hired on a probationary basis for a period of three (3) months. During the probationary period, Bargaining Unit Employees shall be entitled to all rights and benefits of this Agreement other than entitlement to the RRSP benefit and medical benefits, due to plan rules. At the mid-point and on or about the completion of the three (3) month period, the Employee will undergo evaluation in accordance with the evaluation procedures of the clinic and be advised of their work performance. - (d) The Employer may terminate a probationary Employee for cause at any time during the probationary period. It is understood that there is a lesser standard of what constitutes just cause for a probationary Employee than for a seniority Employee. (Revised Nov. 20/00)

15.04 Loss of Seniority

An Employee shall not lose seniority rights if he/she is absent from work because of sickness, accident, layoff, or leave of absence approved by the Employer. An Employee shall only lose his/her seniority and be deemed terminated in the event:

- (b) Before implementing the loss of seniority and the loss of employment clause 15:05 (a), the Employer shall meet with the Union and will give fair and reasonable consideration to all information presented by the employee and the Union as to whether the Employee could, within the reasonable foreseeable future, be capable of returning to his/her position.
- (c) For the purposes of this Article, a year of absence shall include any year when the employee failed to work four (4) weeks during the calendar year.
- (d) Implementation of this clause shall be in accordance with the OHRC and any other relevant legislation.

ARTICLE 16 - TRANSFERS AND PROMOTIONS

16.01 In any transfers which may arise during a layoff situation, or other reduction in the workforce, consideration shall first be given to placing the Employee to be transferred on a job of comparable rate, and secondly, on a job of lesser rate, for which she/he is qualified, displacing, if necessary, an Employee of lower seniority, and the transferred Employee will be paid at the lesser rate.

16.02 In such transfer situations, it is agreed that a training period is frequently required. Such training period will not be less than two (2) weeks, or more than eight (8) weeks, depending on what is reasonable in the circumstances.

16.03 Promotions

All job vacancies in the Bargaining Unit shall be posted for a period of five (5) working days on the Union bulletin board in all offices covered by the Employer, during which time applications from Employees will be received by the Executive Director or designate. (Revised April 2013)

16.04 The Union will be supplied with a copy of the posted job, and a summary of the result.

16.05 All applicants within the Bargaining Unit will be interviewed, and those not accepted will be informed in writing of the reason within ten (10) working days.

16.06 (a) An Employee will have at least thirty (30) days in which to acquaint herself/himself with the details of any new job involving a promotion. If, after thirty (30) days, it is necessary to demote an Employee who has accepted a promotion, she/he will revert to her/his former job and former rate or to a comparable job, and her/his former rate.

- (b) In the event that an Employee receives a transfer/promotion to a job with a different classification, the new salary rate will be determined taking into consideration the employee's years of experience and/or training/knowledge and the employee's years of service in the clinic. All pay rates for new positions shall be negotiated with the Union.

16.07 If management of the Employer selects a member of the bargaining unit for a temporary promotion to a non-bargaining unit position, then the following will apply:

- i) The successful applicant will be entitled to retain accrued seniority to the date of promotion for a period of one year following the date of promotion;
- ii) In the event that the successful applicant returns to a bargaining unit position with the Employer within one year following the date of promotion, the applicant will retain seniority in respect of all years of service performing bargaining unit work; and
- iii) In the event that the successful applicant continues to perform non bargaining unit work for a period of one year following the date of promotion, then the applicant will lose all seniority and will not be maintained on the seniority list of the Employer.

16.08 Disabled Worker Provision

ARTICLE 17 - LAYOFFS AND RECALLS

17.01 Role of Seniority in Layoffs

Seniority shall govern in the event of layoff. However, subject to the training period as provided in 16.02, if there is no Employee in the Bargaining Unit qualified to perform the work of the Employee liable for layoff, such Employee may be bypassed.

17.02 Advance Notice of Layoff

The Employer shall give the Union and the Employee(s) forty (40) working days' notice of any indefinite layoff and ten (10) days' notice of a temporary layoff. The Union will also receive a list of the Employees to be laid off.

17.03 Recall Procedure

- (a) Employees who are laid off will be retained on a recall list and will maintain and accrue seniority as set forth in 15.01.

- (b) When work is available, the Employees on the recall list will be recalled in order of seniority provided that the Employee can meet the normal requirements of the work with training of not less than two (2) weeks and not more than eight (8) weeks.
- (c) No new Bargaining Unit Employees will be hired until those laid off have been given an opportunity of recall.

17.04 Notice of recall to work shall be directed by Registered Mail to the Employees last known address. If she/he is contacted by telephone, the recall will be confirmed by Registered Mail. It shall be the Employee's responsibility to keep the Clinic informed of his/her address.

17.05 The recalled Employee must notify the Clinic of his/her intention to return to work within four (4) days of receipt of the recall notice, and must return to work within ten (10) days of recall notice, or make alternative arrangements satisfactory to the Clinic. (Revised Nov. 20/00)

17.06 An Employee who refuses recall to a lower-rated job will not lose seniority, but will lose future claim in the current layoff to the job which she/he has refused to accept.

ARTICLE 18 - DISCHARGE AND DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

18.01 Discharge for Cause

When an Employee is discharged for cause, the Business Representative of the Local Union should be notified and the Employee should be given the opportunity to consult with His/her Steward or other Union officer before leaving the premises. 18.02 Discipline

An Employee who is being disciplined in a manner other than discharge for cause shall be retained on the payroll and no discipline shall be invoked until the grievance is finalized.

18.03 If it is necessary to notify an Employee of any disciplinary action being taken against him/her this shall be done in the presence of His/her Steward or designate. Management shall not take any disciplinary action without first verbally warning the Employee, and allowing him/her reasonable time to rectify the problem and a further warning shall be in writing, unless circumstances justify immediate suspension or discharge. The Employer and the Union agree that disciplinary penalties shall not be imposed unreasonably or unjustly. (Revised Nov. 20/00)

18.04 Where an Employee's work is considered to be unsatisfactory, the Employer shall first interview the Employee in the presence of the Steward, if requested by the Employee, and give him/her reasonable time, which shall be specified, to show improvement. If the Employee does not show improvement within the time specified, the Employer shall give the Employee notice in writing of the nature of the unsatisfactory work, at the same time filing a copy with the Steward.

18.05 The employer shall not withhold wage increases or adjustments as a form of disciplinary action. (Revised Jan. 10/06)

- (b) Provide adequate training facilities in the operation of such equipment, so that the senior displaced Employees will qualify for any new jobs created by the installation of the equipment, and
- (c) Provide training where necessary, so that all other Employees displaced by the equipment can exercise their seniority rights at the applicable level, and

The parties recognize that the Clinic will be closed for a different number of days in different years as a result. The Clinic shall be closed from December 24 to January 1, inclusive with no loss of pay provided that one caseworker shall be responsible for providing necessary service to people who "have open case files with the Clinic." The caseworker will be selected by agreement between the Employer and the Union but a schedule of caseworker's names will be prepared to allow for an equitable rotation of the responsibility. The schedule will be prepared as far in advance as possible but not less than six (6) months. If a caseworker is required to attend "to any office business the Employee shall keep a record of the time spent and be compensated at the rate of double time. With the exception of paid holidays listed above, all calls shall be returned within twenty-four (24) hours." Other staff may be required to replace a caseworker in the event of an emergency.
