AGREEMENT Entered into this _____ day of _____, 20 _____

BETWEEN:

- the New Democratic Party of Ontario, hereinafter referred to as "the Employer, and
- the Canadian Office and Professional Employees Union (AFL-CLC), hereinafter referred to as "the Union".

PREAMBLE

The purpose of this agreement is to maintain a harmonious relationship between the New Democratic Party of Ontario and its employees; to define clearly the hours of work, rates of pay, and conditions of employment; to provide for an amicable method of settling differences which may from time to time arise; to promote the mutual interest of the employer and its employees, to promote and maintain such conditions of employment; in recognition whereof, the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1- RECOGNITION

The employer recognizes the union as the sole bargaining agent for all its employees save the Provincial Leader and the Provincial Secretary.

ARTICLE 2 - CONTRACTING OUT OF BARGAINING UNIT WORK

- 2.01 The employer will not contract out work that will result in the reduction of hours, the laying off of employees in the bargaining unit. It is not the employer's intention to contract out work normally performed by the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 3 - UNION SECURITY

- 3.01 All employees to whom this agreement applies shall be required to join the union immediately when hired. When interviewing job applicants, the employer will inform them of this requirement and shall supply them with a copy of the collective agreement, including an up to date seniority list, upon hiring.

It is understood that Article 7 regarding dismissals; Article 13.02 concerning the Great West Life Insurance Plan; Article 14 on the Pension Plan and Article 19 on grievances and disputes shall not apply to those employees subject to the probation period referred to in Article 6.01.

- 3.02 All employees shall become and remain members in good standing in the union during the term of this agreement.

3.03 Union dues shall be deducted from the pay of every employee each month and shall be remitted to the Treasurer of the Union.

ARTICLE 4 - EMPLOYER RIGHTS

4.01 The union recognizes the right of the employer to hire, promote, demote, transfer, alter the work and duties of, suspend or otherwise discipline or discharge any employee for just cause, subject to Article 6 and to the right of the employee concerned to lodge a grievance in the manner and to the extent provided in Article 19.

ARTICLE 5 – DEFINITIONS

5.01 There shall be three categories of Employees:

1. Permanent full-time employees.
2. Permanent part-time employee, who works regularly less than twenty (20) hours per week;
3. A temporary employee is one who is hired:
 - a) full-time for a specific project which does not exceed four (4) calendar months duration or a longer period where the union agrees; or
 - b) full-time for pre-election organizing for a period not to exceed 12 months or for a longer period where the union specifically agrees; or
 - c) on an hourly basis for a specific task or set of tasks for a period not to exceed 60 scheduled working days or a longer period where the union specifically agrees.
 - d) At the time of hiring the employer must notify the employee in writing of this provision. The union allows that, in the case of the temporary employee the employer may waive the seniority qualifications for job vacancies, promotions, lay-offs, and rehiring; that regarding dismissals, Article 7.03 only need apply and that Article 14.01 regarding the pension plan need not apply.

5.02 Compensation

Temporary employees shall receive the entry level salary rate for the appropriate job classification. The employer shall not be required to pay the cost of fringe benefits or pensions for temporary employees. Temporary employees shall receive vacation pay at the rate of four percent (4%) which shall be paid each pay period. Temporary employees shall receive payment for holidays outlined in article 8.02 in accordance with the formula provided in the Employment Standards Act.

Part-time staff will be paid on a pro rata basis according to the classification for which they were hired.

5.03 Retention

- a) Should the temporary employee as described within Section 5.01 (3a) be retained for 2 terms of work and accumulate 27 work weeks, within a 12-month period, the employee becomes a permanent full-time employee for seniority purposes only.
- b) Should the temporary employee as described In Section 5.01 (3b) be retained for a second term of work within 12 months of the election that employee becomes a permanent full-time employee for seniority purposes only.
- c) Permanent part time employees shall not be hired in place of full time employees and full-time positions will not be divided into part time positions without the expressed agreement of the union.
- d) Permanent part time employees shall be entitled to all benefits under the collective agreements except that vacation pay, weekly indemnity and other wage replacement benefits will be pro-rated.

5.04 The employer shall notify the union within twenty (20) working days of the status of all persons newly hired under the above classifications.

ARTICLE 6 - PROBATION, SENIORITY, PROMOTIONS AND LAY-OFFS

6.01 There shall be a probation period of three months for all employees.

6.02 Upon completion of the probation period, an employee shall accumulate seniority on the basis of length of service with the employer effective from the date of hiring.

6.03 Accumulated seniority shall be cancelled when an employee voluntarily leaves the service of the employer, receives severance or where they are discharged for cause. Where an employee is laid-off, they shall retain their accumulated seniority up to the date of lay-off.

- b) Seniority continues for a maximum period of 36 months after layoff subject to article 6.04(c)

6.04 Layoffs

The employer will first offer any layoffs to employees on a voluntary basis in order of seniority. Where further layoffs are required, such layoffs shall be issued in reverse order of seniority.

It is understood that the initial offer to senior employees to layoff voluntarily will not result in the employer being left in a position where skills are not available to the workplace.

- a) In the event of a layoff, the affected employee shall receive one (1) months' notice or pay in lieu of, or the period of notice provided for by the Employment Standards Act, whichever is greater, as well as any accumulated monies owing. However, an employee who accepts an offer of voluntary layoff shall be entitled to no more than the period of notice required by the least senior employee who is subject to layoff at the time that the offer of a voluntary layoff is made.
- b) Recall shall be by seniority provided the employee is qualified to do the work available. The employee being recalled shall be notified by signature-required mail.

In the event there is a dispute on whether the employee is qualified it shall be dealt with under the grievance procedure.

- c) Such recall rights shall continue for a period of three (3) years from date of layoff unless the person 1) notifies in writing that they have severed employment; or 2) fails to report within five (5) working days after notification by signature required mail to the last known address (it is understood that a full-time employee who is on lay off status, can decline a recall to a part time position without jeopardy; 3) has retired or died.
- d) The employee will keep the employer informed of any change of address.

6.05 The union shall be notified of the status of any person leaving the employ of the employer.

6.06 Accumulated seniority shall be protected while the employee is on leave of absence from the employer.

6.07 Any new positions or vacancies shall be filled from within the bargaining unit provided that qualified employees are available to fill the vacant positions. When a vacancy is posted in accordance with articles 6.10 and 12.02 the senior qualified applicant will be appointed to the position and shall receive that rate for the classification which is appropriate to the employee's seniority. The promoted employee may be returned to they/their previous position within 3 months or 90 days of the promotion date at the employee's or employer's request.

Temporary employees shall be considered internal applicants for the purpose of job posting and their length of service shall be considered their length of seniority for this purpose. Should a temporary employee's position end, such rights shall continue for a period equal to their temporary position. Temporary employees shall receive copies of postings by email with a "read receipt."

6.08 Notice of all job vacancies and openings shall be posted on the bulletin board by the employer and shall be communicated by the employer to all employees. All postings shall be communicated by the employer in writing to all employees not using Provincial Office as a base of operation. A period of at least five working days after receipt of the notification shall be provided employees in which to make application for a posted position. The notice will include job title, description of the job duties, and salary to be paid.

Temporary and pre-election postings must include the expected length of employment. The Union Representative shall be notified of all job vacancies posted.

Within ten working days after the closing date of a job posting, the successful applicant and the union shall be notified, and the information posted on the bulletin board by the employer. The time limit herein may be extended by agreement. If the qualifications are changed after a posting has been posted, the position shall be reposted as set out above setting forth the revised qualifications before an appointment is made.

- 6.09 Temporary positions including pre-election organizers, riding organizers, publicity organizers, tour and advance people and any specialized positions shall be posted in accordance with Article 6.10 and shall be filled from within the bargaining unit provided that suitable employees are available with the necessary qualifications and special capabilities to fill the positions.
- 6.10 Employees selected to fill pre-election positions may return to their former classifications without loss of seniority and at the rate of salary paid for that classification on the date of return.
- 6.11 In all cases date of hiring will be interpreted to be the earliest date of permanent, continuous employment, whether for a temporary or a permanent, position. The only exception will be in connection with Great West Life Insurance Plan and Canada Life for whom the beginning date of employment must be the first day of permanent employment.
- 6.12 The employer may grant a new employee one year of experience when hiring. Seniority and future wage rates will be calculated from the actual date of hiring.

ARTICLE 7 - DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

- 7.01 No employee who has completed the probationary period shall be disciplined or discharged without just cause.
- 7.02 Before applying discipline or before discharging an employee, the employer shall first discuss thoroughly with the employee, who shall be accompanied by a union steward, the reasons for which they are considering the disciplinary action. If unsatisfactory service is the reason for the proposed discharge, the employee must be given a reasonable opportunity to improve they/their performance.
- 7.03 The employer must give a minimum of two weeks' notice of discharge to all employees or pay at the regular rate in addition to any other benefits accruing to the employee under this agreement. (This provision shall not apply to temporary or pre-election employees who have worked the specific period agreed upon at the outset of employment.)

- 7.04 Moreover, no such employee may be discharged unless the union has first been notified in writing and the union may at its discretion make the discharge or proposed discharge the subject of a grievance under Article 18.
- 7.05 The employer recognizes and agrees to adhere to the principles of progressive discipline as founded in arbitral Jurisprudence.

ARTICLE 8 - HOURS OF WORK, OVERTIME AND HOLIDAYS

- 8.01 The employer will determine the hours of operation of the office between 8:00am - 7:00pm Monday to Friday.
- (a) In order to establish the working hours of individual employees consultation will take place between the employer and the respective employees,
 - (b) The employer will do everything possible and reasonable to accommodate each employee's preferred hours, giving the most senior first consideration.
 - (c) In recognition of the nature of our work, the parties understand that the final disposition of such hours must rest with the employer. Employees in Levels 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 must work thirty-two and one-half hours per week except during June, July and August when each employee will be required to work thirty-two hours. Each individual will account for their hours. Lieu time may be accumulated in order to provide occasionally for a four-day work week with authorization of the Provincial Secretary.
 - (d) Absences from work other than illness shall be submitted in writing to the Provincial Secretary. Permission for such absences shall not be unreasonably denied.
 - (e) An employee must be prepared to fill in where there is need outside of their normal scope of work, if at all possible and practical, and if and when they are temporarily free of the demands of they/their work. Where an employee is required to assume the responsibilities of a higher paying classification, said employee will receive the rate of pay for that classification.
 - (f) Phone Bank: the hours of work for phone bank employees shall be up to forty (40) hours per week over five (5) days. Hours may vary including evenings and weekends. With the agreement of the employee, union and employer, the employee may work their forty (40) hours over six (6) or seven (7) days.

8.02 Employees shall be granted the following holidays without loss of pay:

New Year's Day, Family Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Victoria Day,

Canada Day, Civic Holiday, Labour Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day and Remembrance Day. December 24th, when it falls on a normal working day will also be a holiday. In addition, the office will be dosed between December 27th and December 31st without loss in pay.

The first working day following a federal convention held in Ontario, or a provincial convention, shall be a holiday for those employees who work at such convention. The employer will also grant two (2) additional paid holidays. The two holidays will be floating and will be assigned by the employer with the agreement, if possible, of the bargaining unit.

It is understood and agreed that in the event that either the Ontario and/or the federal governments declared an additional legal statutory holiday during the term of this agreement that one of the holidays shall be designated as such legal holiday.

8.03 In recognition of continuous and heavy work schedule for the riding development and organizing staff during an election campaign will receive one week's special paid leave of absence. The special leave must be taken within 45 days and schedule for this special leave to be worked out with the employer. In recognition of extra demands and extra responsibility placed on the administrative and clerical staff in Levels 1, 2 and 3 at election time, they will receive two days' special paid leave of absence to be taken within 45 days of the election and schedule for this special leave to be worked out with the employer.

In the case of staff who work on a by-election, one week's special paid leave of absence will be granted for working a full 28-day campaign. Leave will be pro-rated by mutual agreement for staff who work less than a full 28-day campaign. The special leave must be taken within 45 days of the campaign and schedule for this special leave to be worked out with the employer.

8.04 Subject to Section 8.06 an employee required by proper authority as designated by the Provincial Secretary to work beyond their/their regular working week or established working day shall be paid at the rate of one and a half (1.5) times their normal daily rate or equivalent time in lieu by mutual agreement. In addition, employees required to work on a public holiday as defined by the Employment Standards Act shall receive double time or equivalent time in lieu, by mutual agreement.

8.05 Employees shall be permitted one fifteen-minute rest period each morning and afternoon.

8.06 Sections 8.01 and 8.04 shall only apply to employees who are in clerical or support staff in Levels 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5.

8.07 During the period of an election, employees in Levels 1, 2, and 3 will be scheduled to work their established working hours between the hours of 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. Monday to Friday. Additional hours as required may be scheduled between the hours of 9 a.m. and 6p.m. on Saturdays and 10a.m. and 4p.m. on Sundays said hours to be compensated with time in lieu.

8.08 All employees shall be granted a lieu day when required to work a statutory holiday.

8.09 Overtime is defined as pre-authorized time, with approval by the Provincial Secretary (or they/their designated), over and above the Employee's normal working hours. In circumstances where the employer is not available to be reached for authorization and overtime is unavoidable, the employee will request approval at the earliest possible opportunity and such requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

Overtime banks from previous overtime banked in lieu must be used and scheduled by mutual agreement annually in order to use all hours by March 31, 2019.

On a going forward basis, new overtime banked in lieu must be used by the end of the calendar year following the year in which it was earned.

In the event employees are unable to use banked overtime in the prescribed period because requests to use lieu time have been denied, the affected employee shall have the option to carry forward to the following year.

ARTICLE 9 - ANNUAL VACATIONS

9.01 Vacation credits shall be calculated on January 1st of each year.

9.02 Vacation credit calculation:

- Those employees with less than one year's service on June 1st will be entitled to 1.5 days' vacation for each full month of service.
- Employees with 1 but less than 3 years of service on January 1st shall be entitled to 3 weeks' vacation pro-rated for each full month of service.
- Employees with 3 years of service but less 10 years' service on January 1st shall be entitled to 4 weeks' vacation pro-rated for each full month of service.
- Employees with 10 years of full service shall be entitled to 5 weeks' vacation prorated for each full month of service.
- Employees with 15 years of full service shall be entitled to 6 weeks' vacation prorated for each full month of service.
- Employees with 20 years or more of full service shall be entitled to 7 weeks' vacation prorated for each full month of service.

9.03 When a recognized holiday falls within an employee's vacation period, such holiday will not be counted as vacation, and another day off will be granted, or the day of return may be one full day later or the vacation may commence one day earlier, as an-angled with the employer.

9.04 Vacations due on January 1st of any year must be taken before January 1st of the following year. Employees shall have the option of carrying forward a maximum of five (5) vacation days. The total number of carried forward vacation days shall not exceed five (5) days at any given time. In the event that an employee has been unable to take vacation because requests for vacation have been denied or due to such events as elections or conventions, the affected employee shall have the option of carrying forward such vacation for a mutually agreed period of time.

- 9.05 It is understood that all vacations must be taken at a time mutually satisfactory to the employee and the employer with priority given to those with most seniority.
- 9.06 In the event of an election being called, the employer shall have the right to postpone vacations until after the election.

ARTICLE 10 - SICK LEAVE

- 10.01 Subject to Articles 3 and 5, employees who have completed the probationary period referred to in Article 6 shall be entitled to 20 working days of sick leave with pay each year, and in special cases, longer periods of sick leave with pay may be arranged by mutual agreement. Sick leave may be taken in half days where applicable.

Temporary employees shall accumulate sick leave at the rate of one day per month.

- 10.02 Sick leave may be used only in the event of sickness or accident and the employer may, in his discretion, require production of a medical certificate.
- 10.03 Sick leave shall be cumulative from year to year to a limit of 120 working days.
- 10.04 A sick leave record book shall be kept up to date showing all cumulative sick leave for all employees. Employees shall sign for a sick leave used.
- 10.05 Upon termination of employment, 25% of the employee's unused accumulated sick leave shall be paid to the departing employee at they/their normal straight-time weekly salary up to a maximum of 32 days.

It is clearly understood and agreed that an employee who has been laid off due to lack of work for a period in excess of 18 weeks and who elects to terminate they/their employment will only be entitled to 50% of what is provided in the 1st paragraph to a maximum of 8 days.

ARTICLE 11- LEAVE OF ABSENCE

- 11.01 Where the employer is officially notified by the union that an employee has been designated to perform union duties requiring absence from work, the employer shall grant leave of absence without pay but without loss of seniority to such employee, but where the proposed absence is likely to last more than one day, the employer may in they/their discretion, require one week's notice.

- 11.02 On application of an employee, the employer may, in they/their discretion, grant leave of absence without pay but without loss of seniority, for any purpose not specifically dealt with in this agreement. Permission for such absence shall not be unreasonably denied.
- 11.03 Persons called for jury or witness duty shall be granted time off with full pay, with the understanding that all money received for such jury or witness duty shall be turned over to the employer in the form of a personal cheque or money order.
- 11.04 In the case of the death of a member of the family, an Employee will be granted five (5) days leave with pay and two (2) days for grandparents. Family will be defined as spouse, children, grandchildren, sister, brother, mother or father, (including step, in-law relationships including those of spouse and common-law spouse). In case of the death of an uncle, aunt, nephew, niece (including those of spouse and common-law spouse, an Employee will be granted two (2) days leave with pay. This leave shall also take into account leave for different family relationships. Additional leave may be arranged by mutual agreement.

11.05 Maternity and Paternal Leave

- a) A leave of absence for two months without pay, for each year of service to a maximum of six months unpaid leave, shall be granted in cases of pregnancy. This leave is in addition to the seventeen (17) weeks leave with pay in subsection 11.05 (d).
- b) An employee granted maternity leave as set out in 11.05 (a) shall continue to accumulate seniority and receive full benefits and pension.
- c) An employee entitled to maternity and parental leave under this article, who provides the employer with proof that she has applied for and is eligible to receive Employment Insurance (EI) benefits pursuant to the Employment Insurance Act, 1996 (formerly the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1971) shall be in accordance with Article 14.
- d) In respect of the period of maternity/parental leave, payments made to permanent employees will be as follows:
- i) For the waiting period, payments equivalent to ninety-three percent (93%) of the actual current weekly rate of pay for the classification, which the employee was receiving on the last day worked prior to the commencement of maternity leave, and
 - ii) Up to a maximum of fifteen (15) additional weeks, payments equivalent to the difference between the sum of the weekly Employment Insurance benefits the employee is eligible to receive, and any other earnings received by the employee, and ninety-three percent (93%) of the actual current weekly rate of pay for their classification, which they were receiving on the last day worked prior to the commencement of the maternity leave.

e) An employee returning from a leave of absence under this article shall be assigned to they/their former classification and be paid at the step in the salary range that they had attained when the leave of absence was granted.

11.06 An employee with a spouse or partner shall be entitled to a leave with pay up to a maximum of seven working days a year for the birth of they/their child. If the employee opts for maternity leave under section 11.05 they shall not be entitled to the parental leave under this section.

11.07 In the event an employee receives Employment Insurance benefits, they shall be entitled to benefits as per Article 11.05 (b), (c), (d) and (e).

11.08 The employer will grant a leave of absence without pay or benefits, to an employee elected to a full-time public office, and said leave shall be granted without loss of seniority.

ARTICLE 12 - CLASSIFICATION AND WAGES

12.01 Classification of employees and wages shall be as set forth in Appendix I, which is attached to and forms part of this agreement.

12.02 In the event of a new position within the bargaining unit being established, the classification and salary shall be mutually agreed upon by the parties hereto.

ARTICLE 13 - HEALTH AND WELFARE

13.01 The employer will cover all employees under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act, 1997 (formerly known as the Workers' Compensation Act).

13.02 New employees will receive full benefits no less than 30 calendar days from the date of employment. The employer agrees to pay the full applicable cost for each employee of the following:

ARTICLE 16 - DISCRIMINATION

16.01 Subject to Section 16.02 there shall be no discrimination on the basis of race, ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation gender identity, gender expression, and age, marital status, family status or disability in regard to hiring, promotions, lay-offs, dismissals, rates of pay or other terms or conditions of employment.

16.02 Nothing in this article shall be interpreted to limit or detract from the provisions of Article 15. It is understood that in accordance with the OHRC, there shall be no mandatory retirement at age 65.

ARTICLE 17 - SAFETY, HEALTH, AND COMFORT

17.01 The employer shall make all reasonable provision for the safety, health, and comfort of the employees during working hours, and the union may from time to time propose and discuss with the employer suggestions for improvements in the physical conditions of work.

17.02 Any use of mobile phones for party business must be authorized by the Provincial Secretary. The employer will provide a mobile phone for staff required to use one for party business only.

17.03 The employer recognizes that the temperature in the building should not be lower than 18C nor higher than 25C. If the temperature exceeds these figures the employer shall take the necessary steps to bring temperature into this range.

17.04 The parties agree to establish a health and safety committee which shall consist of two members from the employer and two members for the union. The parties shall mutually agree on the terms OSF reference to this committee which shall be in accordance with the OHSA. The employer shall cover the cost of certification training for a minimum of one (1) worker member of the committee. Such training shall be provided through the Workers Health and Safety Centre.

ARTICLE 18 - RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES

18.01 Any rights and privileges at present enjoyed by the employees and not specifically dealt with in this agreement shall remain unchanged during the life of this agreement.

ARTICLE 19 - GRIEVANCES AND DISPUTES

19.01 In the event of a grievance by an employee, the employer or the union, or in the event of a dispute between the parties as to the meaning or effect of this agreement it is agreed that there will be no stoppage of work but that the following procedure will apply

Step 1: The grievance or dispute shall be taken up by the duly authorized representative or representatives of the union with the employer's Provincial Secretary or by the Provincial Secretary with the union representative or representatives, with a view to the negotiation of a mutually satisfactory settlement. The grievance will be brought to the attention of the other party within fourteen (14) working days after the occurrence of the incident which gave rise to the grievance.

Step 2: If a settlement has not been reached at Step 1 after the expiration of fourteen (14) working days, the main facts relating to the grievance or dispute shall be submitted in writing by the party initiating the matter within fourteen (14) working days to the authorized representative to the Party. It shall thereupon be the subject of discussion and negotiation between the union representative or representatives and the employer's administrative committee within thirty (30) working days. The Administrative Committee shall give a response in writing within fourteen (14) working days of the above-mentioned meeting.

Step 3: Failing settlement at Step 2, within thirty (30) working days the grievance or dispute shall be referred to an arbitrator, by either party, to be named by mutual agreement of the parties, and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties.

ARTICLE 20 - General

- 20.01 Employees who so wish will have NDP membership dues or donations to be deducted from their pay cheque.
- 20.02 Employer to pay authorized full direct moving costs for any person transferred to another location which requires moving of household.
- 20.03 Identification cards for organizers to be obtained by employer to get organizers a commercial travelers' rate on accommodation.
- 20.04 The employer will supply a statement of pay deductions to each employee for each pay period.
- 20.05 The employer agrees that upon the death of an employee, that monies to they/their credit at time of death will be paid to they/their beneficiary or estate.
- 20.06 The employer agrees to provide a proper recording format for vacations, sick leave and flex-time which is to be itemized as appropriate by the employer and by the employee (e.g. on the day of return from a leave). A copy of they/their record shall be provided to each employee annually on January 1st for reconciliation and written verification by both the employee and the employer.

ARTICLE 21 - SEVERANCE PAY

- 21.01 It is the desire of the parties to this collective agreement to provide full and efficient employment.
- 22.02 An employee who has completed the probationary period is eligible to benefits under this clause provided he/she meets the stipulation of 21.06 below.

- 25.07 The employer will pay for a business phone in an office if necessary. If home base is used, the employer will pay long distance service upon submission of a detailed record.

ARTICLE 26 - SUCCESSOR RIGHTS

- 26.01 In the event that the employer shall, by merger, amalgamation, acquisition, re-creation, or by any other means enter into agreement with any other organization, which in whole or in part affects the existing bargaining unit, such successor shall be bound by each and every provision of this collective agreement. The employer shall have the affirmative duty to call this provision of this Agreement to the attention of all parties.

ARTICLE 27 - COST OF LIVING

- 27.01 A cost of Living Allowance for all employees will be implemented in the following manner:

Effective the payroll period next following the release by Statistics Canada of the February, May, August and November Consumer Price Index, a cost of living adjustment based on 1981 equals 100 will be made to all salaries. Such adjustment will be calculated on the basis of $.01 per hour for each .100 increase in the all-items Metropolitan Toronto Index (calculated exactly) multiplied by 32.5 hours per week in the case of support staff in levels 1, 2 and 3, 44 hours per week in the case of staff in levels 4 and 5. Such total increase as of the August figures will be rolled into the basic salary, all levels and categories, on January 1 of the following year each. The August figure each year will become the new base for the COLA calculations.

ARTICLE 28 - CONVENTIONS

28.01 It is agreed that all staff will contribute their time to the work at the convention at no charge to the employer for extra hours involved over and above the normal working week. All staff shall receive reimbursement for authorized expenses including hotel accommodation plus meal allowance up to $52.00 per day and $36.00 per day for the day of return. All staff shall receive a day's holiday with full pay over and above that indicated in Article 8.02. All other authorized expenses incurred shall be chargeable.

ARTICLE 29 - GENERAL

29.01 This agreement shall become effective April 1, 2017 and shall remain in force until March 31st, 2021.

29.02 Any part of this agreement may be open to negotiation during the life of the agreement if mutually agreed by the parties hereto. Any new memorandum of agreement reached under this section shall become a part of this contract.

29.03 Either party may, not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days before any expiry date, give written notice of revision or termination of this agreement, setting forth, in the case of notice of revision, the manner in which it is proposed that the agreement should be revised, and in the case of notice of termination, proposed terms of new agreement.

29.04 Forthwith upon the giving and receipt of such notice, the parties shall enter into negotiations for the revision of this agreement or for the conclusion of a new agreement, and during the period of such negotiations, this agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

Signed this 24th day of APRIL 2018.
