

Your environment. Your future. Your vote.

At November's state election the politicians will be trying to impress you.

Make them work for it!

To help you make an informed vote, Victoria's leading environment groups have assessed the current policies of the major state political parties on seven key issues like climate change, healthy rivers, national parks and forest protection. Here's how they measured up.

Photo | Eliza Grey

Photo | iStock

For details of the policy assessment, and for updates as new policies are released, visit these websites:

- www.wilderness.org.au
- www.environmentvictoria.org.au
- www.melbourne.foe.org.au
- www.vnpa.org.au

The environment: How do the parties compare?

Current at 14 October 2010.

Labor

45%

Lib/Nat

14%

Greens

90%

Updated versions of this scorecard will be published on 10 and 20 Nov.

Authorised by Kelly O'Shanassy, CEO Environment Victoria,
Level 2, 60 Leicester St Carlton 3053.

