

REAL FOOD FILM NIGHTS

Farming and food production have strong connections to us all. Join us on a journey through three film nights as we explore some of the darker sides of our relationship with food. Issues ranging from industrial factory farming and genetically engineering of food to the loss of food sovereignty and threat to food security will be addressed. Discuss problems raised and actions we can all take to bring about a better food system for people and planet.

WHAT'S ON THE MENU?

Wednesday 25th June, 6.30pm

Store Wars - Spoof animation comedy (5 min)
The World According to Monsanto - Documentary (100 min)

Tuesday 1st July, 6.30pm

Food not Bombs - Short film documentary (6 min)
We Feed the World - Documentary (95 min)
Meatrix - Spoof animation comedy (5 min)

Wednesday 9th July, 6.30pm

Lost in Palm Oil - Documentary (63 min)
Palm Oil & Orangutan Rescue - Slide Show & talk (5 min)
with Jessica McKelson (Melbourne Zoo)

All films will be shown at Loop Bar, 23 Meyers Place, Melbourne CBD.
Seating is limited. Please RSVP realfood@melbourne.foe.org.au
For more information about the films visit www.melbourne.foe.org.au