INSANE CLOWN POSSE TO HOLD FREE CONCERT IN DOWNTOWN DETROIT AS BENEFIT FOR MICHIGAN FOOD BANK

FARMINGTON HILLS – Underground hip-hop icons Insane Clown Posse aim to give back to their hometown of Detroit as well as to the thousands of fans that have supported them throughout the years by holding a free concert on Saturday, February 21 at the Detroit Masonic Temple.

Tickets are free to all attendees who donate a can of food, which will be given to Gleaners Community Food Bank of Southeastern Michigan. Tickets can be physically picked up in Metro Detroit at the following locations during business hours:

The Crofoot, 1 S. Saginaw; Pontiac, MI

Detroit Masonic Temple, 500 Temple St.; Detroit, MI

Rock of Ages, 31015 Ford Road, Garden City, MI

To pick up tickets in person, attendees should bring a can of food to the location and for every can of food they donate to the Gleaners collection, crate, they get a free ticket to the February 21 concert (Limit four tickets per person).

Free tickets can also be ordered online via TicketWeb (there is a nominal shipping fee for online tickets) and purchasers are asked to bring a can of food with them to the Masonic the day of the show. Tickets are available online here:

Tickets will be available until venue capacity is reached. Doors for this very special event will open at 4 p.m. and the evening's entertainment also includes the professional wrestling action of Juggalo Championship Wrestling (JCW) and very special musical guests!

In addition, the evening before the concert (Friday, February 20), there will be a special double-feature screening of Insane Clown Posse's two full-length cult classic comedies "Big Money Hustlas" and "Big Money Rustlas" at the Detroit Masonic's Jack White Theater. Admission for both movies is only $5 and doors open at 6 p.m. Tickets are available at the door and in advance at the following link:
