UBUNTU, pronounced oo-BOON-too, originates in the Bantu language of southern Africa and is an African philosophy and world view focused on people-to-people relationships. “I am because you are” most simply and beautifully describes Ubuntu. Desmond Tutu further defined the term when he said:

“One of the sayings in our country is Ubuntu – the essence of being human. Ubuntu speaks particularly about the fact that you can’t exist as a human being in isolation. It speaks about our interconnectedness. You can’t be human all by yourself, and when you have this quality – Ubuntu- you are known for your generosity. We think of ourselves far too frequently as just individuals, separated from one another, whereas you are connected and what you do affects the whole World.”

What would our world look like if all people lived by Ubuntu? We hope you will join us to find out!

You make the difference...

The prayers and help you provide through your local congregations make possible the work and witness of GLOBAL MINISTRIES, which is supported by Disciples Mission Fund of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and Our Church's Wider Mission (OCWM) of the United Church of Christ.
