WILKINSON RETAIL TEAM MEMBERS WORKING OF SUNDAYS CONSULTATION

Dear Colleagues,

The consultation we have recently undertaken with members and regions, on the company proposals for Sunday working, have been concluded.

We have now written to the employer with the following letter:

"The consultation with our members is now complete and I have not to my knowledge received any objections to these proposals from members, either from our regions or from our Convenors.

Therefore as consultation has concluded, with discussions with the IR reps for the company on your proposals, and consultation with GMB regions and members, we advise the company that we accept the new proposal as a new working agreement."

Therefore we wish to advise Team Members that the company proposals are now an agreed way forward to properly deal with any requests for Sunday working in the retail side of the company.

If anyone requires further information, please do not hesitate to contact your senior GMB stewards.
