

Yorkshire and the Humber

Cross Trade Union - Young Members Christmas Event

The TUC Y&H and the GMB Yorkshire and North Derbyshire Young Members are proud to announce a cross Trade Union Christmas Young Members event. This event is predominantly aimed at 27's and under in the first instance as there is currently 100 free tickets available for this event, however anyone else interested is welcome to join us if we have the availability.

The event is due to take place on Friday the 6th December and will be staged in two parts, Please note the event details below;

5.30pm Arrival to the GMB Yorkshire and North Derbyshire Regional office
Grove Hall, 60 College Grove Road, Wakefield, WF1 3RN

Here will be a drinks reception whilst people arrive ready for a special showing of Ken Loach's film The Spirit of 45 - An impassioned documentary about how the spirit of unity which buoyed Britain during the war years carried through to create a vision of a fairer, united society. Film showing to begin at 6pm

7.15pm A special Q&A session will take place with former MP Colin Burgon - A man with so much passion regarding the birth of our NHS and also with reasons why we should fight to save our NHS!

7.55pm Just a short walk from the GMB office to the College pub
138 Northgate, Wakefield, WF1 3QT

8.15 Till late

Here we will be met with a night full of entertainment!

- We have an amazing DJ set lined up by DJ Wags
- A band to play live cover versions of all your favourite songs
- In-between all of the above we are proud to announce the amazing poet JB Barrington (Words Escape Me) from the streets of Salford!

Further details and links will be available soon for the event, in order not to miss out please contact Deanne Ferguson at the GMB office to secure your FREE ticket - deanne.ferguson@gmb.org.uk Tel: 01924887297 Looking forward to seeing you there!

