Dear Chief Executive,

Working Arrangements:

Christmas Day & Boxing Day 2010 and New Year's Day 2011

Christmas Day and Boxing Day 2010 fall on Saturday and Sunday respectively and New Year's Day 2011 falls on a Saturday.

Monday 27 December automatically becomes a public holiday in place of Boxing Day and the Government has designated Tuesday 28 December and Monday 3 January 2011 as public holidays with pay in substitution for Christmas Day and New Year's Day respectively.

A number of questions have arisen as to the payments to be made to employees required to work on 25, 26, 27 & 28 December and 1 & 3 January.

In accordance with joint advice issued in previous years to deal with these circumstances, authorities are advised that payments, unless a local agreement is in place, should be made in accordance with Green Book Part 3 Para 2.6 as follows:

- Employees required to work either on Saturday 25 December or Tuesday 28 December (but not both) should receive public holiday payments for the day on which they work.
- Employees required to work on both Saturday 25 December and Tuesday 28 December should receive Saturday rates of pay for Saturday 25 December and public holiday pay for Tuesday 28 December.
- Employees required to work either Sunday 26 December or Monday 27 December (but not both) should receive public holiday pay for the day on which they work.
- Employees required to work on both Sunday 26 December and Monday 27 December should receive Sunday rates of pay for Sunday 26 December and public holiday pay for Monday 27 December.

- Employees required to work either Saturday 1 January or Monday 3 January (but not both) should receive public holiday payments for the day on which they work.
- Employees required to work on both Saturday 1 January and Monday 3 January receive Saturday rates of pay for Saturday 1 January and public holiday pay for Monday 3 January.

Yours sincerely,

Sarah Messenger
