Voluntary Redundancy at Remploy- What's in it for you???

10 Reasons to say NO

How would this make you feel?

- 1 Loss of Job
- 2 Loss of Regular Income
- 3 You can't provide for your family anymore!
- 4 Loss of work friends
- 5 Loss of Benefits
- 6 Loss of Remploy Factory
- 7 Potential loss of Pension
- 8 Potential problems with health
- 9 Potential loss of the choice of future employment
- 10 Loss of principles, honour, humanity

What would you do if it happen to you???

- Reason 1: You will lose your job!
- Reason 2: You will lose your regular income
- Reason 3: You will lose your dignity and the ability of being able to provide for yourself and your family
- Reason 4: You will lose your friends at work
- Reason 5: You will lose your Benefits! Remember that this Government is cutting all types of Benefits including Disability Living Allowance!
- Reason 6: You are losing a Remploy Factory in your community that would in future provide employment for more disabled people
- Reason 7: You will lose the capacity to build a retirement pension
- Reason 8: You may lose your health because of prolonged unemployment and suffer from depression
- Reason 9: You will lose the right for you to choose what employment you will have in the future
- Reason 10: If you take Voluntary Redundancy you lose the two most important principles that all working people have- you lose your integrity and humanity!

And remember... Your Remploy Factory is not only your workplace but it is the place where you meet your friends, where you work to provide for your family and where you feel valuable and wanted! Don't let it all go.....
