school to utilize the Children's Club's existing off-site parking spaces, and (2) a yard adjustment to allow the school to use the existing side yard setbacks on the property. The project involves the adaptive re-use of the existing Children's Club and Day Care property, owned by the Assistance League of Southern California, located at 5620 De Longpre Avenue, as a public charter school for up to 390 students in grades K – 8, that would be operated by Citizens of the World Charter Schools. Citizens of the World operates a public charter school, with 160 students, on a portion of Grant Elementary School, and has leased the property from the Assistance League to establish a new home for its charter school. Citizens proposes interior renovations to create up to 13 classrooms and establish an E-1 occupancy for the building, with no proposed additions, increase in floor area or exterior changes.

9. Discussion and possible action and vote with respect to whether issue a Letter of 10:45
Support for the Sunset Bronson Studios Project, located at 5800 W. Sunset Blvd. L.A., CA 90028. The project includes a 13-story office tower consisting of approx. 314,495 sq. ft., a five story office building consisting of approx. 90,300 sq ft and a 1,635-stall parking structure. These improvements will replace an existing surface parking lot and ancillary studio related buildings. The purpose of the Project is to revitalize underutilized portions of the project site, attract entertainment and media companies, beautify the site that respects the existing historic context, and provide an opportunity for media-related jobs in Hollywood.

10. Discussion and possible action and vote with respect to whether issue Letter of 10:55
Support for Florin Fford 's New Single Family House located at 4941 Marathon St. - 1,152 Sq. Ft. on vacant lot in Melrose Hill HPOZ.
