Walk the Talk: An Interfaith Response to Polluted Runoff

Polluted runoff is the only source of pollution in the Chesapeake Bay Watershed that is still increasing. As people of faith, we are called to respond. God makes the rain, but We make the runoff.

Sunday, February 2, 2014
2:00-3:30 pm
First Presbyterian Church
9325 Presbyterian Circle, Columbia
Questions? Email info@interfaithchesapeake.org Register here! http://ow.ly/sCD2P

Come learn about Polluted Runoff and what faith communities across Maryland are doing about it. Listen to testimonies from the faith community about their commitment to Creation. Meet county representatives and get answers to your questions about the fees. Get resources on how to take action to help heal the Bay.

Be a part of the groundswell of action to address polluted runoff!

Speakers, Resources, Idea-Sharing, Dialogue
Tour First Presbyterian Church’s Living Laboratory of 7 Stormwater Management Practices