

Faith and the Environment: Learning What We Can from the Concepts of Sabbath

Monday, October 14, 2013
Camp Wright, Stevensville, MD (Kent Island)

All sessions in Dining Hall unless otherwise noted

- 9:15 Registration
- 9:45 Welcome
- 10:00 Reflections on Sabbath and Stewardship from Our Faith Traditions
Sabbath: The Communion of Heaven and Earth (A Christian Perspective):
Rev. Allen LaMontagne
From Sabbath to Sabbath: The Way of Living in Jewish Life:
Rabbi Nina Beth Cardin
Earth Stewardship Concepts and Practices of the Nause Waiwash Band of Indian People: Chief Sewell (Winterhawk) Fitzhugh
- 11:15 Break
- 11:30 Panel Discussion with Speakers: Rabbi Don Berlin, moderator
- 11:55 Small-Group Discussion: Joelle Novey, facilitator
- 12:15 Lunch (feel free to take your lunch outside)
- 1:00 "Faith into Action" Panel Discussion: Joelle Novey, moderator
Joelle Novey, Interfaith Power and Light (Maryland, DC, Northern Virginia)
Jodi Rose, Interfaith Partners for the Chesapeake
Megan Jenny, Chesapeake Climate Action Network
Mark Scallion, Pickering Creek Audubon Center
- 2:05 Break
- 2:15 Outdoor Mini-Workshops: (choose one)
A Walk in the Woods with a Forester: Dr. Carl Gallegos (meet outside DH)
A Talk with a Riverkeeper: Emmett Duke, Sassafras Riverkeeper (beach)

Building a Rain Garden: Carol Jelich, Master Gardener (pavilion)

3:00 Closing Ceremony: Rev. Jane Ayers (outdoor amphitheater)

3:30 (End of Program)