

Join us for workshops, speakers, poetry, dance, music, film, and opportunities to network with Jubilee supporters and debt campaigners from across the United States and around the world.

Find out what you can do to bring an end to the international debt crisis, join campaigns to challenge global poverty, and build the skills and knowledge we need to build an effective movement for economic justice!

Special guests include Amy Goodman of the Pacifica Radio program Democracy Now!, hip-hop performance ensemble Kuumba Lynx, Illinois State Senator Don Trotter of the National Black Caucus of State Legislators, Afro-Colombian performers Julio Montaña y Martha Arboleda, activists and debt campaigners from Liberia, Ecuador, and the Democratic Republic of Congo and more!

A limited number of need-based scholarships are available. To apply go to www.jubileeusa.org.
