

Are you interested in working in politics?

The Los Angeles County Republican Party (RPLAC) is offering year round internship opportunities for students in all regions of the county. Interns will be mobilized within their own regions and paired with appropriate assignments, respective of various time commitments. If you are a High School Senior or a College Student, and have an interest in Republican politics...we are looking for you!

LOS ANGELES COUNTY REPUBLICAN PARTY YOUTH LEADERSHIP INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

ABOUT THE LOS ANGELES COUNTY REPUBLICAN PARTY

The Republican Party of Los Angeles County (RPLAC) is a volunteer organization. RPLAC is part of the California Republican Party and is the official Republican Party Organization in Los Angeles County. The County is comprised of 24 Assembly Districts each of which has an Assembly District Central Committee that is elected by Republican Voters every 4 years during the Primary Election.

OUR GOALS ARE:

- To increase Republican voter registration
- To identify and support Republican Candidates for office
- To increase Republican voter turnout at the polls

DESCRIPTION OF INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

The RPLAC intern will be working with the RPLAC Executive Director to assist maintain regular Republican Party operations.

Responsibilities will include: Assisting the Central Committee Voter Registration Chair and other local clubs with voter registration, partnering with local Young and College Republicans to increase club membership on local College and High School campuses, event planning, and working on electoral campaigns.

QUALIFICATIONS

The Intern will be expected to:

- Be committed to Republican Party ideals and values
- Communicate clearly orally and in writing
- Have basic computer and office skills
- Handle multiple projects simultaneously
- Work both independently and as a member of a team

CONTACT INFORMATION

Please send an attached resume and short email cover letter to:

Info@lagop.org

For more information or questions call our headquarters at (818) 558-7600.