

Hutt City Youth Awards

Label & Litho Hutt City Youth Award for Leadership

To recognise a young person in the Hutt who displays great leadership skills.

Prize: Morning/afternoon tea for four people with the Prime Minister in his Parliament office, $500 donated by Label & Litho.

The Hodge Group Hutt City Youth Award for Entrepreneurship

To recognise a young person in the Hutt who displays entrepreneurial spirit and who demonstrates the potential to be a future business leader.

Prize: $500 donated by The Hodge Group, free advertising donated by Hutt Radio, and support from the Hutt Valley Chamber of Commerce.

GNS Science Hutt City Youth Award for Science and/or Technology

To recognise a young person in the Hutt who has demonstrated innovation in the STEM areas: science, maths, engineering, manufacturing, and technology.

Prize: A tailored internship experience at GNS Science, and $500 donated by GNS Science.

WelTec Hutt City Youth Award for Service to the Community

To recognise a young person who has made a significant contribution to the Hutt through voluntary service.

Prize: $500 donated by WelTec and a mentorship tailored to the winner arranged by the Rotary Clubs of the Hutt Valley.

Westpac Hutt City Youth Award for Overcoming Adversity

To recognise a young person in the Hutt who has overcome challenges to achieve success.

Prize: Mentorship experience tailored to the future goals of the winner, and $500 donated by Westpac.

The Dowse Art Museum Hutt City Youth Award for the Arts

To recognise a young person in the Hutt has achieved success in the performing, visual, or literary arts.

Prize: $250 voucher for art supplies from Pete's Emporium, and a tailored mentorship with The Dowse Art Museum.

Ignite Sport Hutt City Youth Award for Contribution to Sport

To recognise a young person in the Hutt who has made a significant contribution to sport.

Prize: A sporting mentorship arranged by Ignite Sport, and $500 donated by Label & Litho.

Natraj School of Dance Hutt City Youth Award for Tolerance and Diversity

To recognise a young person who has made the Hutt a better place to live by embracing diversity and developing connections between people.

Prize: Mentorship with the Natraj School of Dance and $300 donated by the Natraj School of Dance.

THE JUDGES

Ray Wallace

Mayor of Lower Hutt

Sir Neville Jordan

2012 Wellingtonian of the Year, entrepreneur and philanthropist

Kevin Goldsbury

Director of Ignite Sport

Courtney Johnston

Director of The Dowse Art Museum

Renee Ailao

Founder of NZ Kids Food

THE FINE PRINT

Who's eligible?

The awards are open to young people, aged 12-21 (inclusive) who have a strong connection to Hutt City – they live in Hutt City and/or go to school in Hutt City, and/or are nominated for an activity which is based in Hutt City.

When do nominations open?

Nominations are open on September 14 and close on November 6. After that the judges will decide the winners of each category.

How do I nominate someone?

Nomination forms are available at www.huttcityyouthawards.co.nz

Organising Committee

Chris Bishop MP (Chair)

Ken Laban (Greater Wellington Regional Council)

Rachel Compton (Petone Rotary)

Prabha Ravi (Natraj School of Dance)

Martin Penrose (Hutt Valley Rotary)

Mikaela Bowmar (Kelson Community Association)