THE SUMMER OF SOCIAL JUSTICE 2013

The New Jersey Institute for Social Justice, along with our co-sponsors, announces its annual "Summer of Social Justice," a series of conversations regarding cutting edge legal issues among established and emerging leaders for social change. In years past, this series has included titans of social justice including some of New Jersey's leading civil rights advocates, philanthropic leaders, New Jersey Supreme Court Justices, and some of the most respected attorneys in New Jersey. This year's series will include two events:

BALANCING LITIGATION, LEGISLATION, AND EFFORTS TO MOVE PUBLIC OPINION IN THE PURSUIT OF SOCIAL CHANGE: A COMPARISON OF THE STRUGGLES FOR EQUALITY OF THE AFRICAN-AMERICAN AND LGBTQ COMMUNITIES

MODERATOR

Craig Levine, Senior Counsel & Policy Director, New Jersey Institute for Social Justice

PANELISTS:

Elise Boddie, Professor at Rutgers School of Law-Newark and Former Director of Litigation at the NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund

Larry Lustberg, Director of the John J. Gibbons Fellowship in Public Interest and Constitutional Law and Chair of the Criminal Defense Department at Gibbons P.C.

DATE/TIME:

Tuesday, July 16th, 4:00 p.m., Gibbons PC, 1 Gateway Center, Newark.

IDENTITY, INTERESTS AND IMMIGRATION REFORM: WHAT'S AT STAKE FOR THE NATION AND NEW JERSEY?

Cornell William Brooks, President and CEO, New Jersey Institute for Social Justice

PANELISTS:

Professor Alina Das, New York University Law School Immigration Clinic

Amy Gottlieb, Director of the American Friends Service Committee Immigrant Rights Program

Professor Anastasia Mann, Director of the Program on Immigration and Democracy at the Eagleton Institute, Rutgers University

DATE/TIME:

Thursday, July 25th, 1:00 p.m., Rutgers-Newark Law School, 123 Washington Street, Newark.

We hope you will be able to join us for these fascinating discussions.
