

Mayor Jackson: There's got to be a better way

The city of Cleveland is proposing to build a garbage incinerator at the Ridge Road Transfer Station.

It would involve the cooking of trash at high temperatures and the release of toxic pollutants into the air.

Recycling and reuse of materials is more energy efficient than combustion, and could create hundreds of jobs.

The city should not gamble millions of dollars on unproven technology that could endanger my family's health.

printed name	address	email	phone number 1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10

petitioner's name _____ date _____

Please return completed petitions to Ohio Citizen Action, 614 W Superior Ave., Suite 1200, Cleveland, OH 44113

Earth Day Coalition • Environmental Health Watch • Northeast Ohio Sierra Club - Coal & Energy Committee • Ohio Citizen Action