

OKK WORK/FELLOWSHIP WEEKEND

APRIL 24-27, 2014

Come and bring a friend to the spring work weekend to get Old Kia Kima ready for youth to experience another year in the outdoors high above the South Fork Waters.

There is much that needs to be done as a result of the hard winter that the area experienced. You are needed!

Time together will include fellowship, good food and celebrations.

Registration form (following page) will allow for meal planning and work details each day. Please complete the form and mail to John McGuire along with payment for meals.

This is also a great time to pay your 2014 dues.

Schedule of events during work weekend

Friday - April 25 at 9:00 am. - The Board of Directors will meet in the Thunderbird Lodge.

Saturday – April 26 at 3:30 pm. - A Celebration of Life for Steve Horne in the Kamp Fire Area. Jim Moore will coordinate. Contact information for Jim is mooremail@windstream.net

Saturday – April 26 after supper - Presentation of a check from the Arkansas General Assembly to OKKPA by Arkansas State Representative, Congresswoman Sue Scott.

OLD KIA KIMA WORK WEEKEND

April 24-27, 2014

Board Meeting April 25, 9:00 am

You are needed to help with the opening of Old Kia Kima for 2014 and to perform maintenance for the camp. Please, come and join the fellowship.

Major projects for the weekend include:

- Installing rail ties along Tater Highway to provide support for cabin foundations.
- Cleaning up exterior grounds - Old Dining Hall
- Sealing decks to buildings
- Waterfront brush – light cleanup
- General cleanup of tree limbs and brush around Kamp activity areas
- Cleaning of Pancho's Pit – paint kitchen area
- The usual things needed to prepare the camp for another successful season.
