Press Release

New e-Exchange system a spectacular success

Jnana's new e-Exchange system successfully launched.

Sydney, 5th August 2011: The beta version of Jnana's new e-Exchange system was successfully launched at the International Organic Expo and Green Show in Sydney, Australia.

EcoDirectory Australia Pty. Ltd. purchased a license for Jnana's new e-Exchange system in July 2011. EcoDirectory launched a beta version of the system at its stand at the International Organic Expo and Green Show in Sydney.

People loved the new system and valuable feedback was collected to input into further development.

EcoDirectory plans to launch the final version of stage 1 in the coming months.
