

2010 May Day Celebration

A Salute to Defiant Public Workers

- Public employees fight to preserve social services and the environment
- Teachers, staff and students strike to save public education
- Anti-privatization battles heat up Mexico's electric and oil industries
- Corrupt politicians fund a permanent war economy and shred state budgets

Speakers

Nathanael Chappelle

Thirty-one-year veteran bus driver awarded Metro Operator of the Year by his peers, activist in Amalgamated Transit Union 587

Betsy McConnell-Gutierrez

Vice President of Washington Federation of State Employees 304 and labor educator who organized a rally against budget cuts in Olympia

Maxine Reigel

Teamsters 117 member, feminist, and King County employee who testified against furloughs, layoffs and cut-backs in services

Saturday, May 8, 6pm

Blue Plate Special Vegetarian option available

Program 7:30pm • Door donation $3 • Dinner donation $9

Sliding scale & work exchanges available for students, the unemployed & low-income people

New Freeway Hall 5018 Rainier Ave. S., Seattle

On the #7 bus at Hudson St. stop or a short walk east from the Columbia City light rail station

Hosted by Freedom Socialist Party • socialism.com

For information: 206-722-2453 • FSPseattle@mindspring.com • Facebook.com/FSPseattle
For childcare call three days in advance