

2013 Candidate Questionnaire

OVERVIEW

For New York City to compete in the global economy and provide the safety and quality of life New Yorkers deserve, our leaders must embrace a 21st Century vision for our streets that puts well-being of people first. StreetsPAC supports candidates for public office who will champion safe, complete and livable streets.

Safe Streets are safe enough for children, seniors, and people of all abilities to travel without fear of death or injury. Despite recent gains, our streets remain unsafe:

- Motor vehicle crashes are the leading cause of preventable death in New York City; crash fatalities increased 12% in 2012 compared to 2011, and hit-and-run fatalities increased by 31% from 2010 to 2012.
- Although speeding is the top factor in NYC traffic deaths, police rarely enforce speeding laws on neighborhood streets, and prosecutors rarely pursue charges against sober drivers who kill.

To foster safe streets, StreetsPAC supports speed cameras and other enforcement strategies as well as changes in roadway design, which are proven to calm traffic.

Complete Streets encourage mobility and health by allocating space for walking, public transportation, bicycling and wheelchair access, and by prioritizing curbside access for taxis, delivery trucks and passenger loading over the underpriced curbside parking that now makes such uses difficult or impossible. For example:

- Select Bus Service using dedicated bus lanes has been an unqualified success, reducing travel times by 20% and increasing ridership.
- Increased bicycle lanes have made cycling for everyday transportation a viable option for thousands of New Yorkers. Protected lanes have been proven to reduce crash injuries among bicyclists, walkers and drivers by approximately 40%.
- Countdown clocks, sidewalk extensions and landscaped pedestrian safety islands make walking more pleasant and efficient.

StreetsPAC supports improving the quality and variety of transportation choices to improve personal mobility and build a more sustainable transportation system of complete streets.

Livable Streets are comfortable and welcoming to local residents and visitors and attract patrons to shops, restaurants, hotels and other local businesses. New Yorkers want to live, work and shop on livable, economically vital streets. Research shows:

- Pedestrian plazas, bike lanes, play streets and other amenities dramatically increase retail property values, and significantly raise other commercial and residential property values.
- The reduction and elimination of motor vehicle traffic on Broadway from Columbus Circle to Union Square has created a mecca for tourists as well as internet-based and other new-economy businesses.

StreetsPAC supports repurposing street space for the use of people to promote livable streets where commerce and community life can thrive.

1) Motor vehicle crashes are accounting for far too many preventable deaths, particularly in southern Brooklyn. Fourth Avenue in Bay Ridge, in the Council District neighboring mine, has seen a number of incidents recently. I fully support the installation of speed cameras, and am extremely disappointed our leadership in the State Senate failed to act on this. I also support changes in the design of our streets that are proven to calm traffic.

2) As a Councilman I will publically urge the District Attorney to prosecute violators who are responsible for crashes resulting in serious injury or death to the fullest extent of the law. I will work with our Representatives in Albany to increase penalties for moving violations, including speeding.

3) I recently lead a coalition, along with Assemblyman William Colton and TWU Local 100 (both are supporting my candidacy) to restore the B64 bus line that connects Coney Island and Bensonhurst. We must continue to organize around public transportation issues to fully restore the 2010 MTA cuts and improve service. The best way to encourage increased use of public transit is to have the best public transit system possible.

4) Certain streets in my district can and should be repurposed to better meet transportation needs.

5) In major Manhattan shopping districts, pedestrian plazas and decreased motor vehicle traffic have been successful in increasing retail value and helping businesses thrive. I would advocate, when appropriate, for more of these types of spaces throughout the City. In my own district, I will work with the local Community Boards, nonprofits and community groups to streamline the closure of streets for activities that benefit the community.

6) As an aide to Assemblyman Bill Colton, I've spoken with a number of constituents who complained about parking troubles, congestion and air pollution caused by local businesses. We need to help our small businesses thrive and be engines for economic growth in a way that is respectful and responsive to the residents in the area. I see my role as a Councilman as helping foster discussions between residents and small businesses to find solutions that work for everyone.
