MENU OF CONVERSATION

For each course, one of you chooses a question to discuss, then the other, and so you go through the menu.

APPETIZERS

What band would you choose to create the soundtrack of your life?

What is your first memory of using the internet?

MAIN COURSE

If you were writing a book about your life, what would the title be and why?

When was the last time you confronted a major fear?

DESSERT

Are you better at laughter or forgetting?

What would the world look like if every one of us is doing what we are meant to do?
“If you bring people together from different backgrounds, and encourage them to have a one-on-one conversation in which they take off their masks, share part of their lives, and look through each other’s eyes, then you have created a small moment of equality and mutual understanding. And by multiplying these kinds of conversations, you can produce a microcosmic yet potent form of social change. Think of it as changing the world one conversation at a time.”

- Theodore Zeldin
