

Election 2010: The Environment by the Numbers

Compiled by the Toronto Environmental Alliance

Number of Councillors who scored A or higher in the TEA report card: 24

By Community Council: Etobicoke York 4; North York 5; Toronto-East York Community Council 11; Scarborough 4

Number who scored B-: 1

Number who didn't respond to the report card ran on a pro-environment platform: 2
(Josh Matlow and James Pasternak)

Number of Councillors required to win a vote when all Councillors and the Mayor are present: 23

Number of people who voted for council candidates who received a B or higher in the TEA report card: 428,702 (as a percentage of total votes cast for Council candidates: 54.3%)

Number of people who voted for Mr. Ford: 383,501

Number of additional votes for pro-environment council candidates than for Mr. Ford:
45,201

Number of times Mr. Ford mentioned the environment on his website: 0

Number of environmental report cards Mr. Ford has failed since 2008: 3

Councillors who scored an A or higher:

Vincent Crisanti (Ward 1); Peter Milczyn (Ward 5); Anthony Perruzza (Ward 8); Maria Augimeri (Ward 9); Frances Nunziata (Ward 11); Sarah Doucette (Ward 13); Gord Perks (Ward 14); Ana Bailao (Ward 18); Mike Layton (Ward 19); Adam Vaughan (Ward 20); Joe Mihevc (Ward 21); John Filion (Ward 23); Jaye Robinson (Ward 25); Krystyn Wong-Tam (Ward 27); Pam McConnell (Ward 28); Mary Fragedakis (Ward 29); Paula Fletcher (Ward 30); Janet Davis (Ward 31); Mary-Margaret McMahon (Ward 32); Shelley Carroll (Ward 33); Michael Thompson (Ward 37); Glenn De Baeremaeker (Ward 38); Raymond Cho (Ward 42); Ron Moeser (Ward 44)