

25 YEARS OF BUILDING...

TEA delivers 24,000 letters and petitions to City Council to put transit expansion back on track.

TEA launches TTCriders.ca - a voice for Transit Riders.

TEA's membership hits 30,000.

City finally implements TEA plan for green bins!

2012

TEA holds smog hike to honour 1700 victims of smog.

2010

TEA fights to save Community Environment Days and other city environmental services.

2008

2006

TEA releases Toronto's first Culturally-Specific Local Food Guides.

TEA's Good Neighbours Campaign pushes local company to address community pollution concerns.

2004

2002

TEA and allies succeed in getting the City to pass a pesticide ban.

TEA wins Buy Local Food First Policy for City Agencies.

2000

1998

TEA has active campaigns to reduce garbage, clean up city sewage, reduce pesticide use, develop a green local economy and share knowledge with local environmental group in Ecuador.

TEA convinces City to pass first Community Right to Know Bylaw in Canada.

NOW Magazine votes TEA "Best Defender of Local Ecology".

1996

1994

City adopts TEA's plan to reduce smog.

1992

Province wants to burn garbage. TEA says No!

1990

TEA's critique "A Curbside Tale: How Taxpayers Were Left Holding the Blue Box" gets national attention in the Globe and Mail.

1988

TEA is born!

...A GREENER CITY FOR ALL