

SAVE STERILE SERVICES

Lancashire Teaching Hospitals are handing Sterile Services provision to American owned Synergy Health via a back door deal. This has been done without consultation or public agreement.

The NHS is accountable to the public, private companies are accountable to shareholders.

Sterile Services based at Chorley and South Ribble Hospital recently won a national award for quality, and we fear that quality will be jeopardised if the service is privatised.

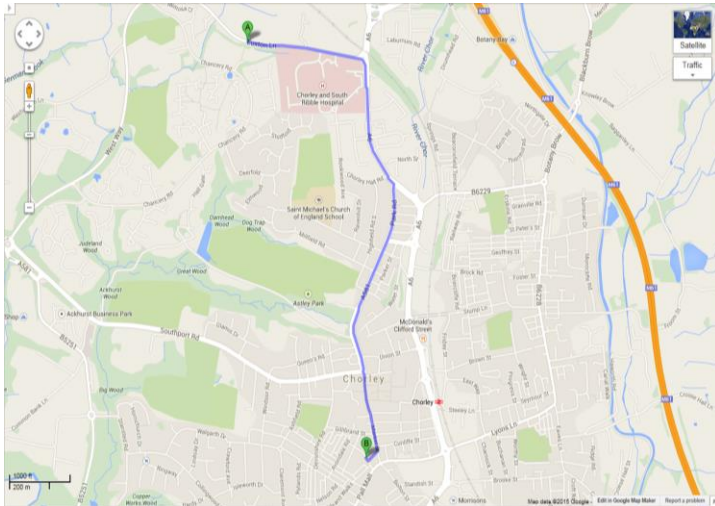

The NHS is being sold off piece by piece right under our noses and soon it will be too late to stop it.
