

How to see the ad

Go online to www.stillspeaking.com

The ad was released at our March 27, 2006 national press conference. Read more about the spring ad run at <http://www.stillspeaking.com/campaign/faq06.htm>

Participate in Stillspeaking 101 (initial training) or Stillspeaking 102 (booster party).

Contact your Conference or Association for schedules. Or go to the event in your own church offered by your Stillspeaking trainer. These events are great opportunities to deepen your skill and expertise, learn about results, and share what works in offering extravagant welcome.

The new Training Notebook includes a copy of the ad ($20) – usually one per church is enough. If you took Stillspeaking 101 last year and have an original Notebook, we recommend you purchase a new one. Twice the content, same price, and the new ad. If you need a VHS copy instead of DVD, please be in touch with UCCR at 800.537.3394 to exchange.

Purchase a DVD or VHS copy of the ad for $10 from the Stillspeaking Store at www.stillspeaking.com or by calling UCCR at 800.537.3394.

Catch it on TV April 3-23! If we can get station listings, we'll post them on www.stillspeaking.com We'll continue to run the ad until Mother's Day if we have sufficient funds to buy more air time. Help make that happen by making a gift or pledge at: <http://www.stillspeaking.com/campaign/support.htm>
