

As the Grain was Scattered

Words and Music by Arthur Clyde (words adapted from the Didache, 2nd Century)

1, 3 As the grain was scat-tered on the hills, and was brought to-geth-er to be-come our bread,
So we gath-er from the ends of earth, joined a-round this ta-ble as your Church.

Chorus

On hill-sides you feed us, through des-erts you lead us, now at this ta-ble all are one in Christ.
We have new life.

2 From the vine of Da-vid we will drink, as we give you glo-ry in this ho-ly place for the gifts of know-ledge and of life, through your child,
Je-sus Christ, re-vealed.
