We’re excited to have you be part of College Signing Day!

On May 5th, social media will explode with buzz about College Signing Day. Students will share where they’ve committed to attend. Alumni will share their own college pride. And everyone will encourage the next generation as they take their first step to #ReachHigher.

We hope you’ll consider taking a photo with one of the accompanying signs to show your pride in the college you attended – or the one you’re heading to!

1. Print the sign that matches your school colors.
2. Write in the name of your school.
3. Take a photo of you holding the sign. (Be creative! Wear your college sweatshirt! Wear face paint!)
4. Post on social media using the hashtags #ReachHigher #BetterMakeRoom #CollegeSigningDay
5. And tag either @lacash4college and/or @socalcan to be eligible for some cool swag.

Here are some sample social media posts, but be creative and make your own!
