6/4/2017	The mayor of Buckhannon, West Virginia, calls it the most Trumpian place in America, but Buckhannon is also where a growing group of women are finding their voice through protest and where speaking up has angered some people, including the men in their lives. They have gotten a lot of pushback from the town, from everyone from the local fraternity brothers at the nearby college, to their husbands, to their neighbors, to people at the high school. Some of their kids have been made fun of for the women protesting. Other women go home at night and their husbands get after them for appearing on the front page with a protest sign. So, for them, I think it's a constant struggle to keep protesting, in light of the reaction that they are getting.	http://www.pbs.org/newshour/bb/meet-women-taking-stand-trump-country/#.WTMdXwWr8mB.facebook	Edwina Howard- Jack (and fabulous other ladies) PO Box 104 French Creek, WV 26218

5/26/2017	On May 26th three men stood up to a man who was harassing two teenage girls on MAX (Metro-Area-Express, part of Portland Oregon's Mass Transit (TriMet) system). The harasser, a known white supremacist, was using racist, anti-muslim and anti-immigrant language. He pulled a knife on these men, killing two of them and seriously wounding a third before fleeing. There are many articles about this for those who wish to read more about the situation, and about the vigil that followed. There were many who stepped up in the aftermath, reports tell that of good samaritans tending to the wounded, and following the assaulter to help direct police to him for his eventual arrest.	From the LLB-Oregon: https://docs.google.com/document/d/1oz8ks8sgA69W3PZRnWf-U0IAR6QpRftfZ2F0c8BPGK8/edit	One of the two young women who were being harassed has spoken to local news media and has been identified as Destinee Magnum.
