Supporting Screen Culture Statewide

Hello ,

Some terrific things happening in April around the traps. Be sure to get along and catch The Birdmann tomorrow night as the show is filmed - just one of the projects supported by the Audacity Fund to be shot in April.

Stranger with My Face is back and it's going to be awesome. Check out the details online here. More info below.

See you all soon!

The Birdmann 'Live'

April 2, 8pm Peacock Theatre

The internationally infamous Birdmann will perform his greatest comedy variety acts and make a film of it! The man like no man has toured to over fifteen countries and from the Australian National Circus Festival to the Glastonbury Music Festival to being nominated Most Original Comedy at the Edinburgh Fringe. This night of nights will be released as a downloadable film and DVD and is supported by Wide Angle Tasmania through the Audacity Fund.

TICKETS: buy online or at the door an hour before performances (cash only) Not suitable for children under 10 years.

Stranger With My Face announces 2016 films

"Nothing short of magical. It was transformative for me. I think what is being done there, and celebrated there and made possible as a result, is the best I have seen at any fest." —Jennifer Lynch, featured filmmaker

The 2016 line-up includes the Australian premiere of Lucile Hadžihalilović's Evolution; the Australian premiere of Bernard Rose's Frankenstein; the international premiere of Ginanti Rona Tembang Asri's Midnight Show.

The 4th edition of Stranger With My Face International Film Festival will take place in Hobart from 14-17 April, with a line-up of eight feature films, a shorts program, a symposium, workshops, panels and social events.

Stranger With My Face focuses on diverse perspectives in genre filmmaking and primarily screens horror films directed by women. Read more here...
