NEW Production initiative with WAT

Step-Up Film Initiative - Applications close 4pm, Sept 25

Step-Up is a new production initiative that aims to support Tasmanian filmmakers who are ready to build on the success of their previous short films by developing and producing a short film (under 10mins) designed for International Film Festival entry. This initiative is possible through the generous contributions of over 100 donors to Wide Angle Tasmania's Step-Up Film Fund.

This initiative is designed to support Tasmanian screen practitioners who are looking to create a defining short film that will significantly advance their careers. This is not an entry level initiative – it is a 'step-up' from Raw Nerve and designed for those with a clear idea of how this initiative fits with their career aspirations.

Head to the Step-Up page on our website for more info, the guidelines and application forms.
