MRES 30th Anniversary Gala

"The Way Forward: Cooperation and Collaboration in the Age of Climate Shift"

In a panel format, speakers from organizations with diverse points of view on energy and climate will offer their imaginative, longterm thinking based ways for groups to work together on the overarching environmental issues of our times. Following the panel presentations, the floor will be open for facilitated interaction between the audience and panel. The main objective of this symposium is to learn about and discuss innovative, "out-of-the-box" ideas for partnerships and coalitions among groups with varying agendas. Panel:

Eric Utne was founder of the New Age Journal and the Utne Reader. He has a Bachelor of Environmental Design from the University of Minnesota, is President of the Board of Trustees of Sunbridge College, and a Senior Fellow at the Center for Spirituality and Healing at the U of M. In 2006 he was elected to the Executive Committee of the Nobel Peace Prize.

Eric Utne

Michael Noble Executive director of Fresh Energy since 1995, Noble is known for building constituencies and developing policies for a new energy paradigm and has been a strategist for major public policy innovations. Michael graduated from Carleton College with a BA in History, is chair of the Clean Energy Working Group and serves on the board of directors of Conservation Minnesota Voter Center, Wind on the Wires, and the Will Steger Foundation.

Michael Noble

John Carmody Director of the Center for Sustainable Building Research at the University of Minnesota, John holds a Masters in Architecture and has worked in building-related research for 30 years.

John Carmody

Rep. Melissa Hortman has served in the Minnesota House of Representatives since 2004 and sits on several committees and Subcommittees. She has been an outspoken advocate for the Northstar Commuter Rail line and a leader on environmental issues. She has also won awards for her bipartisan work and from Conservation Minnesota.

Melissa Hortman

Duane Ninneman founder Sage Research and Consulting (SRC) Duane specializes in clean energy development and facilitating community partnerships. Ninneman advocates for an energy agenda that supports rural communities, often advising state legislators and national leaders and staffs the Clean Energy Desk for Clean Up the River Environment.

Duane Ninneman

Moderator: Christopher Childs Actor, environmental activist and author of The Spirit's Terrain: Creativity, Activism, and Transformation, with foreword by the Dalai Lama; Publisher's Weekly called the book a "spiritual manifesto for modern-day social-environmental activists," and Bill Moyers praised it as "a very powerful insight that has significance for journalism as well as activism." Childs has served with Greenpeace and on the boards of Sierra Club's North Star Chapter and MRES.

Celebrate 30 years of accomplishments with us!

The aim of our 30th Anniversary Gala and Symposium is both to celebrate 30 years of accomplishments and to create progressive dialogue around the challenges we face as a society; and, from this platform, to launch the next 30 years during which society must address these formidable problems. To achieve our aim, we will join in partnership with a diversity of organizations to share the work of creating synergistic solutions to severe energy, climate, security, natural resource, economic and social problems, and to work for a better and more sustainable world.

Paul Hawken is an environmentalist, entrepreneur, journalist, and author, dedicated to sustainability and changing the relationship between business and the environment since age 20. He has appeared on the Today Show, Larry King, Talk of the Nation, Charlie Rose, and has been featured in hundreds of articles including the Wall Street Journal, Newsweek, Washington Post, Business Week, Esquire, and US News and World Report; written for Harvard Business Review, Christian Science Monitor, Mother Jones, Utne Reader and over a hundred other publications. His most recent books include The Ecology of Commerce (voted the No. 1 college text on business and the environment by professors in over sixty-seven top business schools,) Natural Capitalism: Creating the Next Industrial Revolution co-authored with Amory Lovins (named one of the five most important books in the world today by Bill Clinton) and Blessed Unrest: How the Largest Social Movement in History Is Restoring Grace, Justice, and Beauty to the World. His books have been published in over 50 countries in 27 languages and have sold over 2 million copies. As a speaker, he has given over a hundred keynote and commencement addresses all around the world, to royalty, heads of state, major colleges and universities and countless organizations. He has earned extensive recognition and many awards including five honorary doctorate degrees.
