SCOTLAND

Scotland - Ready for 20

8th June, City Chambers, Council Chamber Edinburgh

About the event:

In 2015 Transport Scotland announced a change in their guidance which supported and advised wide-area 20mph limits. Edinburgh has been developing its implementation of 20mph limits in the city-centre and across the authority, whilst Glasgow has started its city-centre 20mph implementation.

With Edinburgh's 20mph limits going live in July, 20's Plenty for Us are delighted that the City Council is hosting what will be our first 20mph Places conference in Scotland. The event will share best practice for transport professionals, elected representatives and other organisations understanding the progress being made across the UK on implementing wide-area 20mph limits.
