2014 VOTER GUIDE
OHIO

Yalla VOTE

ARAB AMERICAN INSTITUTE
INTRODUCTION

As the world changes drastically around us, it is more important than ever to make our voices heard at the polls on November 4th.

The hope inspired by the revolutions that swept across the Arab world four years ago has turned into a desperate and urgent fear of violent extremists threatening the entire region. The Israeli-Palestinian conflict saw yet another cycle of failed negotiations coupled with tragedy and violence; now a just resolution appears further away than it has been in decades. The wars in Iraq and Syria continue to tear apart whole societies and fundamentally redefine the role of the global community.

At home, our government has yet to achieve the right balance between protecting our national security and preserving our civil liberties. We have seen countless accounts of alarming, intrusive surveillance programs targeting our community that violate our constitutionally guaranteed rights as equal citizens. Hard won momentum pushing forward immigration reform stalled and another session of congress will end without enacting much needed reform of our immigration system.

The coming election will have to address all these questions and more, and your vote will shape the direction of this country for decades to come. Our community has been a part of the national conversation on these issues and it is critical that we get to the ballot box in November. We have compiled this Voter Guide to help you educate yourself before going to the polls. It contains important information about the voting process in your state and contact information for parties and candidates.

As our community of nearly 4 million Arab Americans continues to grow both in size and in political prominence, we remain focused and committed to the empowerment of our community and the betterment of our nation. For many, that begins at the ballot box. Use this guide, share it, and Yalla Vote!
According to the latest Census data, over 65,000 Arab Americans live in Ohio. However, we estimate that due to undercounting Ohio actually boasts a vibrant Arab American community numbering closer to 197,000. Elections will be held on November 4, 2014 to elect the next Ohio State Governor and to select representatives to the United States House of Representatives.

In a significant victory for voting rights in Ohio, on September 4, 2014 a Ohio judge placed an injunction against previous legislation shortening the early voting period and ending the so-called “Golden Week” where voters can register to vote and cast their ballot on the same day. The 2014 early voting period will now be as long as it was in 2012 and “Golden Week” will continue to exist. However, Ohio voters still face changes to the rules governing absentee and provisional ballots.

Running for governor, incumbent John Kasich (R) will face a competitive election against Democratic candidate Ed FitzGerald. Initially thought to be a competitive race, FitzGerald’s campaign has suffered from a series of unhelpful headlines that have all but ended hope of a Democrat take-over of the state house. Now, Ohio’s Democrats are investing money and effort into voter turnout in the hopes that FitzGerald’s fall doesn’t bring down Democrats in races statewide. Though FitzGerald is floundering, Kasich has never lead the polls by a comfortable margin and has a rocky relationship with this swing state’s voters. Early in his term, Kasich’s approval rating was at a low 30%. But now, Kasich is seen as a rising star within the GOP - his name is regularly thrown into the ring for the 2016 presidential race, and Kasich as already made the requisite rounds to the controversial anti-Palestinian Sheldon Adelson. While most Ohioans are likely unhappy with both candidates for governor this November, local issues will be what get voters to the polls, increasing the stakes of U.S. House of Representatives races for both parties.

In the Ohio 6th, the road to reelection for Republican Bill Johnson is fiercely competitive against Democratic candidate Jennifer Garrison. Redistricted in 2012, Ohio’s 6th district has seemingly grown more conservative, though Johnson is being attacked for the dysfunction in Washington, DC. Notably, though Johnson adheres closely to traditional Republican ideals, he did vote in favor of curtailing domestic surveillance programs, which earned him one positive mark in the Arab American Institute’s Congressional Scorecard. Jennifer Garrison’s drive to responsibly develop the oil and gas industry to foster economic development could potentially win out if voter discontent, or failure to show up to the polls, wins out.

Ohio’s 14th district is also worth watching as it is markedly more competitive than it was just two years ago. This November, the Republican incumbent David Joyce will have to outlast popular Democratic candidate Michael Wager. Traditionally, the 14th congressional district has existed as a haven for moderate Republicans like Joyce, who is campaigning to repeal the Affordable Care Act and balance Ohio’s budget. Wager’s promise to extend unemployment insurance and enact small business tax cuts, however, has made this Ohio race starkly competitive.

Speaker of the House John Boehner (R) is up for reelection, but does not face a threat from his challenger in the 8th district.

Statesmen and women like Ed FitzGerald and Michael Wager are fighting to secure their place in the Ohio political arena, but the real battle will be fought on the streets and in the boardrooms of America’s heartland.

In Ohio, voters have the option to vote in person ahead of Election Day. Voters can cast an early ballot at their county board of elections location or a voting center as designated by your county.

Register to Vote
- The deadline to register and be eligible to vote in the November 4 General Election is October 6, 2014.
- Applications for an Absentee ballot must be received no later than November 1, 2014.
- Absentee ballots must be received by your county elections office before 7:00PM on November 4, 2014, or postmarked before Election Day.

Early Voting
- Early voting OPENS October 7th
- Early voting CLOSES November 3rd

Absentee Voting
- Ohio voters are afforded an opportunity to vote in the convenience of their own homes by requesting an absentee ballot. You must be a registered voter to obtain an absentee ballot, but voters are not required to provide a reason for their desire to vote absentee. Absentee ballots for each individual election may be requested as early as January 1, or 90 days prior to the election. Separate applications are required for each election in which a voter wishes to vote absentee.

Steps to request and vote with an absentee ballot:
- Complete the absentee ballot request form found online at www.sos.state.oh.us or at your local board of elections office. Please note that unlike previous years, new legislation prohibits county election boards from mailing out unsolicited absentee ballot applications, so you must request an application in order to receive one.
- Mail this request form to your local county board of elections
- Receive your ballot by mail from your county board of elections
- Return your voted ballot by mail, or in person, to your county board of elections. Completed ballots must be received prior to the close of the polls on Election Day, or postmarked no later than the day before the election. You may not fax or email a completed ballot.

Early Voting
- In Ohio, voters have the option to vote in person ahead of Election Day. Voters can cast an early ballot at their county board of elections location or a voting center as designated by your county.
Early voting in Ohio OPENS October 2, 2014 and CLOSES November 3rd.

Make sure to check the Secretary of State’s voting calendar for hours and early voting locations, as they are typically different from Election Day polling places. You can find further information online at https://www.sos.state.oh.us/SOS/elections/Voters/2014daysVoting.aspx

AT THE POLLS

ID Requirements
To vote on Election Day, Ohio law requires voters to present their full name, current address, and provide proof of identity. Acceptable forms of identification include:

- A valid Ohio driver’s license or state ID card
- Military identification
- A photo ID issued by the federal government or state of Ohio that displays the voter’s name and current address
- An original copy of a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or government document. “Current” is defined as within the last 12 months and must include voter’s name and current address.

If the voter does not have any of the above forms of identification, they may provide their Ohio driver’s license number, state ID number, or the last four digits of their Social Security number to cast a provisional ballot. Once this information is reviewed and verified by the board of elections, the provisional ballot will be counted.

Registration for Groups with Special Needs

The following accommodations are available to increase ballot accessibility for all voters, including elderly voters and voters with disabilities.

- Voting locations are made accessible to all voters. Voters with disabilities are guaranteed access to accessible parking and routes of entrance.
- Any polling place that is exempt from the accessibility requirements will offer curbside voting to voters with disabilities. If you are unable to enter the polling place, two precinct election officials from the major political parties will bring a ballot to you. You may sit in your car and vote, or you may vote at the door of the building.
- Voters who cannot mark their ballot, or who need assistance due to a disability, may bring someone with them to assist them in the voting process. They may also ask for assistance from precinct election officials. Disabled voters may not be assisted by their employer, an agent of their employer, an agent of their union, or any candidate whose name appears on the ballot.
- Every polling location is required to provide voting machines that are accessible to individuals with disabilities. These machines include features like audio ballots, Braille touch pads, large print or zoom features, and height and tilt adjustments on the screens.

Convicted Felons
In Ohio, persons currently serving time in jail or prison for a felony conviction may not register to vote or vote in elections. All convicted felons have their right to vote automatically restored upon completion of their sentence. Those on probation and/or parole may also register. Any person twice convicted of a violation of election laws is permanently barred from voting in Ohio.

Campaigning and the Polls
Polling locations are strictly neutral zones. Accordingly, Ohio law imposes specific limitations on who may enter a polling location and what conduct is permissible in these locations. No one is permitted to loiter, congregate, or engage in any form of election campaigning within 100 feet of the entrance to the polling location, or within 10 feet of any elector waiting line. Ohio law prohibits anyone from soliciting, attempting to influence an individual’s vote, or preventing an elector from entering or leaving a polling location.

CANDIDATE PROFILE

John Kasich (R) Incumbent
268 South 4th Street
Columbus, OH 43215
(614) 824-5560
www.kasichforohio.com

John Kasich is the Republican candidate campaigning for reelection. Kasich served in the U.S. House of Representatives for 18 years, representing Ohio’s 12th district, and later worked as an investment banker. In 2011, Kasich was elected the 69th Governor of Ohio in a close race against Democratic incumbent, Ted Strickland. Kasich directed his efforts towards reducing Ohio’s budget deficit during the course of his first term as Governor.

According to his website, John Kasich stands for:

- The implementation of job friendly policies
- K-12 education reforms, improving job training programs, and reforms in higher education
- Tax cuts for low and middle income families
- Additional tax cuts for small businesses
- Making veterans a priority by helping them secure jobs, academic counseling, and receive academic credit for military training and experience
- Policies that make college more affordable for students
