

ACCEPT CONNECT CHAT SESSIONS

ADMISSIONS COMMUNITY
CULTIVATING
EQUITY &
PEACE
TODAY

These chat sessions are an opportunity for students to ask the questions they really want to know in regards to the college admission process and get answers from actual college admission and college counseling professionals. The panelist will share some general information regarding their specific session topic, but student questions will drive the conversation.

THURSDAY, APRIL 16TH @3:00 PM (EST) LGBTQ+ STUDENTS AND THE COLLEGE ADMISSION PROCESS

The college admission process can be daunting for any student, but if you are an LGBTQ+ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer/Questioning) students navigating the process can often feel like there are additional challenges that they didn't even see coming. This session will explore how LGBTQ+ students can research and ask meaningful questions to find a school that is a great fit for them.

WHO WE ARE:

ACCEPT: Admissions Community Cultivating Equity & Peace Today empowers college admissions professionals who seek to center anti-racism, equity and justice in our work and communities. As educational gatekeepers, college admissions professionals hold the most responsibility in removing barriers to post-secondary education; everyone in this work has a role to play. ACCEPT will lead the college admissions profession in creating an equitable, just, and anti-racist path to post-secondary education. We are excited to offer this opportunity in partnership with StriveScan.
