

A fair go means fair pay rises

AUSTRALIANS
WANT A FAIR GO

Jobs we can count on

Fair pay rises that keep us
ahead of the cost of living

Rights that guarantee a fair go

Change the Government

Right now, big business has too much power, and we aren't getting a fair go. Multinationals and the very rich are taking far more than their fair share, and the rest of us are going without.

We watch big business lining their pockets at the expense of us, our families and our future. Wage growth is at near record lows. Insecure work, wage and super theft, the unfair gender pay gap are all features of a system that is out of balance.

Scott Morrison and his government don't have a plan to get fair pay rises for working people. They've voted eight times to cut our penalty rates. They don't even understand that insecure work is hurting us and our families.

They've made one rule for the very rich and another one for the rest of us.

Now is the time to change the rules to get a fair go. And to change the rules, we need to change the Government.
