Advocates for Special People, Inc. is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization that supports parents and families with adult children who have intellectual and/or developmental disabilities.

The organization was founded in May 1997 by concerned parents who wanted their children with disabilities to be continually challenged both mentally and physically, to engage in social and recreational activities with their peers, to increase their life skills and be given the opportunity to be productive citizens in the community.

The Special Connexion day habilitation program established in 2003 has three locations that provide daily activities in gym games, arts and crafts, therapeutic exercises, bowling, swimming, community service, field trips to various parks, libraries, movies, restaurants, museums, and other points of interest in the Metroplex. Our programs serve more than 100 Special Needs adults.

We coach and support an athletic program where our special athletes are trained in basketball, volleyball, track and field, softball, bocce, flag football, aquatics and soccer. Our teams regularly compete in Special Olympics competitions at the area and state level.

MISSION: To improve the quality of life of intellectually disabled adults and their families by providing programs for socialization, recreation, and habilitation.
