

Are you an ECE who would like to learn more about anti-racism and early childhood education?

Please join Dr. Kerry-Ann Escayg from the University of Nebraska at Omaha, and Dr. Beverly-Jean Daniel, from Ryerson University, leading experts in anti-racist practice, for a series of free online sessions this summer!

AN ANTI-RACIST KNOWLEDGE SHARING INITIATIVE FOR EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATORS

Session 1 | Racism & Anti-Black Racism in Canada | July 5, 6-8pm

Session 2 | Understanding Concepts of Diversity | July 6, 6-8 pm

Session 3 | Racism & Young Children, & Re-thinking Family Involvement | July 12, 6-8pm

Session 4 | Anti-racist Pedagogy in the Early Years | July 13, 6-8 pm

If you would like more information and/or to register for these four sessions, please email grip@ryerson.ca by July 2nd.

Registration is free however on a first-come, first-served basis & limited to 300 participants.

A certificate will be issued by the Association of Early Childhood Educators Ontario to attendees of all four sessions.

This initiative is a partnership between Dr. Rachel Berman and Dr. Beverly-Jean Daniel of Ryerson University, Dr. Alana Butler of Queen's University, Dr. Zuhra Abawi of Niagara University, and Ms. Natalie Royer of Humber College, and the Association of Early Childhood Educators Ontario and College of Early Childhood Educators.

This project received funding from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council.
