Manuscript Guidelines

Peer Review Process

Manuscripts submitted undergo a rigorous peer review. Two peer reviewers who have or are working towards a PhD in early childhood studies or a related discipline provide a detailed assessment of the manuscript based on the following criteria: relevancy of subject, writing style, interest level for AECEO-eceLINK readers, organization, and presentation of ideas/research.

Possible outcomes of the peer review process are:

- accepted for publication with no revisions
- accepted for publication with minor revisions
- invited to resubmit the manuscript with accompanying document showing how feedback has been addressed. When resubmitted, the manuscript will be accepted or rejected

- rejected

Form and Style

Style should be consistent with the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (7th Edition). The journal uses Canadian spelling; please consult the Oxford Canadian Dictionary.

- All citations must contain DOI information where relevant.
- An abstract should be included at the start of the manuscript and not exceed 100 words.
- 4-5 keywords that represent the content of the article should be included following the abstract.
- Footnotes should not be used. We prefer that endnotes be avoided, but if you find it necessary to include them, please use the Insert Endnote function in Microsoft Word to insert them into your text rather than typing the numbers manually. This will ensure that your endnotes do not get lost in the journal's copyediting process.
- Manuscripts must be 5000-7000 words
- In order to enable blind review, manuscripts must be anonymized. No author information should be included in the manuscript.
- When using names of children in your article, please use pseudonyms and advise us that you have done so.
- Please use Times New Roman 12-point font and do not use any special formatting or styles.
- Articles should be submitted in Microsoft Word format as per the submission instructions below.

Additional Submission Guidelines

- All author information (including full name, mailing address and biographical information) must be included in a separate document.
  - Please include a brief biographical sketch (4-5 sentences) including the author(s) full name, title, professional affiliation, and other relevant information.
- Once a manuscript is submitted a copy of a signed copyright transfer agreement must be completed.
- Authors are to obtain releases for use of photographs. Completed photograph permission agreements need to be included in the manuscript submission. Please see additional form.
- It is expected that authors will not submit articles to more than one publisher at a time.

Acceptance and Publication

The editor will acknowledge receipt of all manuscripts received. The final publication decision rests with the editors and will be communicated in reasonable time. Manuscript revisions will be sent to the author designated to receive them, and should be corrected and returned immediately. Contributors will be notified when the article has been published.
