 - (d) If there are two policies that are in conflict with one another, the most recently adopted policy shall take precedence.
- 12.2. The Board of Directors shall establish a Policy Committee to develop Party Procedures with respect to policy development subject to approval by the Board of Directors.

13. Constituency Associations

- 13.1. There shall be a registered Constituency Association in each Provincial Electoral Division.
- 13.2. The Constituency Association shall be an independent entity separate and apart from the Party and none of the liabilities or obligations of one shall be the liabilities or obligations of the other.
- 13.3. Each Constituency Association shall be governed by a Bylaw in the form and with any included provisions that the Board of Directors may require.

- 13.4. A Constituency Association Bylaw shall conform to any requirement of these bylaws and shall contain any provision required by these bylaws.
- (a) A Constituency Association Bylaw shall be deemed to include any provision that is necessary for the Constituency Association Bylaw to be consistent with the provisions of these bylaws.
 - (b) Any provision of a Constituency Association Bylaw that is inconsistent with a provision of these bylaws shall be null and void to the extent of the inconsistency.
- 13.5. Members of the Party who reside within a Provincial Electoral Division will be members of that Constituency Association.
- 13.6. Where there is no Constituency Association, the Board may appoint such representatives as may, in its opinion, carry on the affairs of the Party from time to time in the Provincial Electoral Division.

Annual Meetings

- 13.7. Each Constituency Association shall hold an annual meeting to elect the Board for the Constituency Association for the following year.
- 13.8. The Annual Meeting shall be held no later than fourteen months following the previous Annual Meeting.
- 13.9. If a Constituency Association fails to hold an Annual Meeting within fourteen months following the previous Annual Meeting, the Executive Committee of the Party may call and conduct an Annual Meeting for the Constituency Association.
- 13.10. An Annual Meeting that is called and conducted by the Executive Committee of the Party shall be held at any time and location in the Constituency Association's boundaries as may be determined by the Executive Committee of the Party.
- 13.11. Notice of an Annual Meeting shall be given to members of the Constituency Association and the Secretary of the Liberal Party of Alberta no later than fourteen days before the meeting is held.
- (a) Notice given to the Secretary will include a copy of the Constituency Association's Bylaw.
- 13.12. The Executive Committee of the Party may declare an Annual Meeting of a Constituency Association to be null and void if the required notice of the meeting was not given to the Secretary of the Party.
- 13.13. The President of the Party, or their designate, shall conduct any Annual Meeting of the Constituency Association.

Nomination of Candidates for Elections

- 13.14. Each Constituency Association shall work with the Election Readiness Chair to determine a time to hold a Nomination Meeting.
- 13.15. No Nomination Meeting may be held within one week of the official deadline to register as a candidate in an election.
- 13.16. A Constituency Association will hold a Nomination Meeting at one location within the Provincial Electoral Division to choose the Candidate.
- 13.17. A Constituency Association may be permitted to hold a Nomination Meeting at more than one location within the Constituency Association's boundaries with the prior consent of the Election Readiness Chair and where the geographic circumstances warrant.

- 13.18. A Constituency Association may be permitted by the Election Readiness Chair to hold a Nomination Meeting by electronic means, which may include electronic voting.

Boundary Changes

- 13.19. In the event of electoral boundary changes, the Board of the Party shall identify which Constituency Associations will remain active and which will need to be dissolved for new Constituency Associations and will establish rules with regards to the distribution of assets and liabilities from the dissolved Constituency Associations to the new Constituency Associations.
- 13.20. Constituency Associations whose boundaries are not changed or have a population of which at least 85% appears to have been resident in a single Electoral Division will be deemed to be a continuation of the previous Constituency Association as per the relevant legislation and these bylaws and will not be required to conduct a Founding Meeting.
- 13.21. In the case of Electoral Division boundaries where less than 85% of their residents were not a member of a previous Electoral Division, the Regional Chair of the region where the new Electoral Division is located, or the Organizational Chair, will conduct a Founding Meeting for the new Constituency Association.
- (a) Members eligible to vote in the Founding Meeting of a new Constituency Association shall be those determined to be living within the boundaries of the new Constituency Association.
- 13.22. In the event a by-election is held after a Founding Meeting but before the electoral boundary changes come into effect, the Executive Committee shall have the authority to enact such directives as they consider to be required to conduct the by-election effectively.
