

Provincial Executive

New Democrats are dedicated to a vision of a more equal Canada where no one is left behind. The Provincial Executive is a group of passionate and diverse individuals who work closely together to set objectives that best serve all Albertans. They meet regularly to ensure the proper and equitable conduct of Party affairs and elections, including fiscal oversight. We are proud to be served by such an inspired group of Albertans.

Officers

Leader	Rachel Notley
President	Peggy Wright
First V-P	Anne Wilson
2nd V-P	Lou Arab
Treasurer	Siobhan Vipond
Labour VP	Amanda Freistadt
Labour VP	Gary Savard

Executive Representatives

General V-P Edmonton	Sadia Sameeullah
General V-P Edmonton	Matthew Callaway
General V-P Calgary	Jillian Ratti
General V-P Calgary	Gurmit Bhachu
General V-P North	Jane Stroud
General V-P North	Peter Fortna
General V-P Central	Nicole Mooney
General V-P Central	Kyle Johnston
General V-P South	Tracy Lynn Matheson
General V-P South	Aaron Fitchett
Past President	Erica Bullwinkle
Legislature Caucus	Heather Sweet

Party Caucus Co-Chairs

Party Caucuses are a vehicle for like-minded individuals to discuss, debate and promote their area of interest. Each Caucus of the Party also selects one representative to sit on the Provincial Executive.

Environment Representative	Janice Williamson
Environment Representative	Rose-Marie Sackela
Indigenous People's Representative	Currently Vacant
Indigenous People's Representative	John Phillips
Gender & Sexual Diversity Representative	Leah Ward
Gender & Sexual Diversity Representative	Dylan Sloan
NDYA Representative	Kate Pundyk
NDYA Representative	Gurinder Brar
Rural Representative	Doreen Broska
Rural Representative	Kieran Quirke
Women's Representative	Lily Mackenzie
Women's Representative	Blaire Christensen
Race Equity Representative	Lizette Tejada
Race Equity Representative	Shay Lewis