Dear Mr. Moroza-Rasmussen,

It is with great pleasure that we, the Presidency of HNS (Croatian People's Party-Liberal Democrats), nominate Boris Blažeković for the position as ALDE Party Vice president.

For the last fifteen years Mr. Blažeković is our Secretary International and he was the main representative on all international events on the broad and in Croatia as well.

Boris Blažeković is the HNS Party member from its beginning, December 1990. He was on various positions in the party, from president of local Brunch to member of Presidency and Central board. From 2011 till 2015 he was also member of Croatian parliament and Head of the Croatian delegation in Parliamentary Assembly of NATO. In 2005 he founded and till today is the director of HNS's well-known Political Academy. He also organized and led hundreds of various domestic and international political events like ALDE (ELDR) Council meeting on April 2005 or Annual session of the NATO Parliamentary Assembly in October 2013, the biggest political meeting ever to be held in Croatia.

Boris was one of the main persons who were promoting EU as homeland for Croatia and Croatian citizens. He is even today great promoter of EU, and he leads idea of more Europe in EU. He is also co-founder of LIBSEEN, and he is great supporter of regional cooperation of Southeast European region countries. Boris is well known liberal politician in the region. Over his mandates, Boris has proven not only to be a dedicated leader who is always willing to help and give clear political guidance, but he has also stay faithful and consistent to his liberal values.

Till the ALDE Council meeting in Athens this October, Boris is the long-term member of ALDE Financial Advisory Committee.

We are sure, that Boris Blažeković with his capacity and experience can give great contribution in the work and development of ALDE Party.

With kind Regards,

Ivan Vrdoljak, HNS president
