THE CRISIS IN YUGOSLAVIA

This Congress,

A. Alarmed by the risk of large scale armed conflict in Yugoslavia which could have grave effects beyond its borders;

B. Condemning the brutal suppression of the Albanian-speaking people of Kosovo by the Serbian Communist Government and the Serbian Government's violation of the Yugoslav Constitution by blocking the rotation of the Presidency;

C. Conscious of the presence of minorities in the various Constituent Republics of Yugoslavia including those contemplating independence;

D. Noting the support given, until now, by the EC and its Member States to the maintenance of the Yugoslav State;

1. Warns that the continuation of the Yugoslav Federal Republic or the successful establishment of independent Republics enjoying good relations with the EC requires respect for individual human rights, for minority rights and the establishment of democracy;

2. Believes that while the Constitution of Yugoslavia is inoperative and gross abuse of human rights in Kosovo and elsewhere continue the EC and its Member States should provide no further financial assistance to the Federal Government;

3. Instructs its President to transmit this resolution to the Commission, the Council, the Ministers meeting in political cooperation, the Government of Yugoslavia and the Governments of its Constituent Republics.
